MADDENED TURKS THREAT MASSACRE

Ottoman Government Will Expel All Italians From Turkey.

POWERS NOTIFIED OF DANGER

High-handed Interference of Turks With Russian Shipping—Declare Grains Contraband of War—Vigorous Protest

Constantinople, Oct. 9.—It is reported by good authority that the government has addressed a note to the powers stating that it will expel all Italians from the country within a specified time unless Italy desists from her aggression in Tripoli. The government has received messages from interior towns saying that the people will take the law into their own hands and drive out the Italians unless the government acts promptly. The committee of Union and Progress is said to have warned the government of the possibility of a massacre of Italians if they remain in Turkey.

The German Ambassador, Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, had an interview with the Grand Vizier today when he protested against the threatened expulsion of Italians and the action of the government in treating cereals as contraband of war. Many ship loaded with corn from South Russia are unable to pass through the straits, as the captains are afraid that their vessels will be seized, although they are neutral and destined to neutral points. The Russian embassy has urgently requested that the free passage of these ships be permitted.

Viewed in London.

London, Oct. 9.—It is understood that Turkey's appeal to the powers is an endeavor to ascertain the terms upon which Italy is willing to conclude peace, and that pending the outcome of these pour parlers, the decree of expulsion will be withheld. It is stated from Constantinople that Envoy Bey is not going to Tripoli as supposed, to arganize an attack upon the Italians, but that he will return to his post in Berlin, where he is military attache of the Turkish embassy.

This indicates that the Turkish government is desirous of peace, but there is little hope that any practical basis for the negotiations can be found as the porte insists upon the maintenance of the suzerainty in Tripoli.

In the event of failure of the negotiations, according to a Saloniki dispatch, Turkey will expel the Italians and impose a general tariff of 100 per cent. on all Italian goods. If these threats are put into execution, Italy will probably carry the war into European and Asiatic Turkey.

The report comes from Constantinople that Russia is concentrating troops at Karas and Tiflis, trans-Caucasia.

Turks to Surrender?

Rome, (via Frontier) Oct. 9.—The crisis at Constantinople due to pressure brought upon the Sultan by the powers to have him realize that any trouble in European Turkey might be fatal to the whole empire, may lead, according to reports from reliable sources, to a complete surrender, Turkey choosing this particular situation to save her face.

It is even hinted that there is something of a bluff in the Italian preparations and strict censorship both being intended to influence a surrender by Turkey at an early date. A wireless message from Tripoli says that throughout last night the Bedoun cavalry scoured the outskirts of the town evidently trying to determine whether a surprise would be possible, or to lure the Italians out of the town to the place where the bulk of the Turkish garrison is camped in a fortified position. The searchlights from the battleships exposed the horsemen while artillery fire in their direction caused them to make a hasty retreat. The Turks suddenly appeared as though they came from out of the earth and exhibited remarkable temerity.

Turkey Rescinds Order.

Rome, Oct. 9.—It is semi-officially announced that following the intervention of the German ambassador, the Ottoman government suspended the order for the expulsion of Italians from Turkey. It is expected that the government will abandon the measure altogether.

RAILWAY CLERKS

Delegation of Brotherhood Meets in Savannah—Columbia Next

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 9.—Fifty delegates of the Southeastern Federation, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, met here yesterday in quarterly session. Members came from Georgia, Florida, South and North Carolina. While routine business was transacted largely it was the sense of the meeting that the striking union men on the western lines would eventually win out and the Federation declared for the legitimacy of the striking unions demands. Sevtalks of sympathy for the strikers were heard, and the Federation pledged their aid in the event it was asked. The next quarterly meeting is scheduled for Columbia, S. C.

CONDITION OF ALL CROPS

October [illegible] of United States Department of Agriculture Issued Yesterday—Some Improvement Is Shown

Washington, October 9.—Disastrous weather conditions which prevailed throughout the country earlier in the growing season abated during September and the condition of most of the important unharvested crops on October 1st showed improvement.

Corn was one-tenth of one per cent. higher than it was on September 1st; potatoes improved 3.1 per cent.; tobacco 9.4 per cent.; fl 1.2 per cent., and apples 3.6 per cent. Rice condition declined 1.8 per cent.

The effect of the hot weather and drought throughout the growing season was shown in the official preliminary estimates of the production of Spring wheat, oats and barley. These three grains showed a loss in production over last year's harvest of an aggregate of 301,000,000 bushels. All wheat is about 40,000,000 bushels less than last year. The indicated total production of corn as figured out by the Department of Agriculture from the current condition will be about 356,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop. Buckwheat is almost two million bushels less than last year, potatoes 50,000,000 less, tobacco 69,000,000 pounds less and rice two million bushels less.

Flax is the only important crop which will give a harvest greater than last year, the present season producing about ten million bushels more.

The October report of the Crop Reporting Board of the Department of Agriculture, issued at 2:15 P. M. today, shows the condition on October 1st, or at time of harvest; the yield per acre as indicated by the condition on that date and preliminary estimates of the total production of the principal farm crops of the country, as follows:

Corn—Condition 70.4 per cent. of a normal, compared with 70.3 per cent. on Sept. 1st, 1911; 80.8 on Oct. 1st, 1910, and 78.6 per cent., the ten-year October average. Indicated yield per acre 23.8 bushels, compared with 27.4 bushels the 1910 final yield, and 27.1 bushels the average final yield for the last five years. The area planted to corn was 115,939,000 acres, or 101.7 per cent. of the area planted last year.

Buckwheat—Condition 81.4 per cent. of a normal compared, with 83.8 per cent. on Sept. 1st,; 81.7 per cent. in 1910, and 84.2 per cent. the ten-year average. Indicated yield per acre 19.6 bushels, compared with 20.9 last year and 19.6, the five-year average. The area planted to buckwheat was 807,000 acres or 97 per cent., of last year's acreage.

Potatoes—Condition 62.3 per cent. of a normal compared with 59.8 per cent., Sept. 1st; 71.8 per cent., last year, and 75.3 per cent., the ten-year average. Indicated yield per acre 79.7 bushels, compared with 94.4 bushels last year and 96.9 bushels, the five-year average. Area planted to potatoes was 3,495,000 acres, or 97.3 per cent. of last year.

Tobacco—Condition 80.5 per cent. of a normal, compared with 71.1 per cent. Sept. 1st; 80.2 per cent. last year, and 83.4 per cent., the ten-year average. Indicated yield per acre 801.1 pounds, compared with 797.8 pounds last year, and 826.0 pounds, the five-year average. Area planted to tobacco was 893,200 acres, or 92.4 per cent. of last year's acreage.

Flax—Condition 69.6 per cent. of a normal, compared with 68.4 per cent. Sept. 1st; 47.2 per cent. last year, and 78.9 per cent., the eight-year average. Indicated yield per acre 8.1 bushels, compared with 4.8 bushels last year, and 9.9 bushels, the average for the 1905-1909. Area planted to Flax was 3,013,000 acres, or 103.3 per cent. of last year's acreage.

Rice—Condition 85.4 per cent., of a normal, compared with 87.2 per cent., Sept. 1st; 88.1 per cent. last year, and 86.3 per cent. the ten-year average. Indicated yield per acre 32 bushels, compared with 33.9 bushels last year, and 32.4 bushels, the five-year average. Area planted to Rice was 705,700 acres, or 97.6 per cent. of last year's acreage.

Apples—Condition 59.8 per cent. of a normal, compared with 56.2 per cent. Sept. 1st; 46.4 per cent. last year, and 52.4 per cent. the ten-year average.

Spring Wheat — Preliminary estimate of production, 200,367,000 bushels, compared with 231,399,000 bushels last year and 243.186,800 bushels the average for the last five years. Yield per acre 9.7 bushels, compared with 11.7 bushels last year, and 13.5 bushels, the five-year average. Quality, 79.8 per cent., compared with a ten-year average of 87.1 per cent.

Winter Wheat—Preliminary estimate of production 455,149,000 bushels, compared with 464,044,000 bushels in 1910 and 450,129,600 bushels, the five-year average. Yield per acre, 14.5 bushels, compared with 15.8 bushels in 1910, and 15.5 bushels the five-year average.

All Wheat—Preliminary estimate of production, 655,516,000 bushels, compared with 695,443,000 bushels last year, and 693,316,400 bushels the five-year average. Yield per acre 12.6 bushels, compared with 14.1 bushels last year and 14.7 bushels the five-year average.

Oats—Preliminary estimate of production, 873,643,000 bushels, compared with 1,126,765,000 bushels last year, and 932,124,400 bushels, the five-year average. Yield per acre 24.8 bushels, compared with 31.9 bushels last year and 28.4 bushels, the five-year average. The quality of oats was 84.6 per cent., compared with a ten-year average of 86.6 per cent.

Barley—Preliminary estimate of production, 145,951,000 bushels, compared with 162,227,000 bushels last year, and 166,356,000 bushels, the five-year average. Yield per acre, 20.7 bushels, compared with 22.4 bushels last year, and 24.8 bushels the five-year average. The quality of barley was 84.9 per cent., compared with a ten-year average of 87.5 per cent.

Rye—Preliminary estimate of production, 30,677,000 bushels, compared with 33,039,000 bushels last year, and 32,414,000 bushels, the five-year average. Yield per acre 15.6 bushels, compared with 16.3 bushels last year and 16.4 bushels, the five-year average.

Hay—Preliminary estimate of production, 46,989,000 tons, compared with 60,978,000 tons last year, and 63,507,400 tons the five-year average. Yield per acre 1.09 tons, compared with 1.33 tons last year and 1.41 tons the five-year average.

PRESIDENT TAFT TURNING PROPHET

Declares Panama Canal Will be Completed July 1, 1913.

SPOKE OF STEPENDOUS WORK

President Thinks First Steamer Can Go Through Waterway on Date Named—Canadians Made Mistake on Reciprocity

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 9.—President Taft predicted here today that the Panama Canal would be ready for use on July 1st, 1913.

"The canal," he said, "is the greatest constructive work since the Christian era."

The President also declared that Canada was going to be sorry it had not adopted the reciprocity treaty, and talked about conservation.

Speaking of the opening of the Panama Canal, the President said he would let the people of Bellingham "into a little official confidence." "If nothing untoward happens," he said, "you can count on the completion of the canal not later than the first of July, 1913. It has only been promised on the first of January, 1915, and if it is not ready until then you must not say that anybody made a promise that it would be completed before. I am expressing a hope based on calculations. But, of course, man proposes and God disposes. It is possible something will happen down there in the slides or delays that may continue until the first of Jnauary, 1915. But I don't want you to have any unpleasant surprise. I don't want you to have heart disease if you learn that the first steamer goes through on the first of July, 1913.

"There is one topic that I had intended to discuss with you," said the President, "but our neighbors across the border a week or more ago seemed to make it past history. But I think you will agree with me that in doing so they made a mistake. Had that treaty gone through it would have been greatly beneficial to both countries.

"Now, I think we know a little more on this side than they do on their's, because we are an older country. After some years of experience it is possible that they will come to take the right view, but whether that be so or not, if they don't grow as rapidly as we do and as rapidly as they might have grown, they cannot say it is our fault."

Mr. Taft spent the day traveling south from Bellingham, Wash., a little more than twenty miles from the Canadian line to Seattle. He stopped at Burlington, Mount Vernon and Everett, making brief speeches in each place. Tonight he spoke in the armory here. Large crowds turned out to greet him.

INVITED TO COME SOUTH

Invitation Extended by the All-South Conference

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 9.—To the Nation, through a telegram sent to President Taft, the All South Conference today invited citizens of the United States to travel through the South and the Southwest, in going to the two Panama expositions to be held in California in 1915.

G Grosvenor Dawe manager-director of the Southern Commercial Congress, was named chairman of a committee that sent the following tlegram to the President:

"Recognizing your statesmanlike interest in the South and your unvarying friendship as shown by your public acts, the All-South Conference, in session at Memphis, sends greetings to the National Convention through you as President of a united people. The South, as a whole, is desirious that and its prospects should be more fully understood by the nation at large.

"The All-South Conference, therefore, invites the nation to visit the South during the semi-centennial years of 1911 to 1915, that the Nation may come to realize how nationally important a recovery the South has made, shown in municipal advancement, unusually healthful conditions, educational progress, commercial enterprise and agricultural leadership.

"The heart of the South is warm with National impulses. To see the South is to believe in it, and we ask to have our progress measured by actual sight, rather than by statistics."

Similar telegrams are to be sent to the Governors of all States.

BRUTAL ASSAULT BY NEGRO

Pennsylvaniams Will Lynch Girl's Assailant When He Is Caught —Crime in Vicinity Where Negro Was Burned

Coatesville, Pa., Oct. 9.—Another lynching is threatened within this county as the result of a brutal attack made tonight upon Annie McElhaney, a student of the Coatesville High School, by an unknown negro. The populace has not been wrought to such a fever of excitement since the lynching of Zack Walker here on Sunday, August 13th.

This evening Miss McElhaney, who is the daughter of William McElhaney, a prosperous farmer, was on her way home from school when she was attacked by a burley negro on the road leading from Caln to Mortonville. The girl fought her assailant until half her clothing was torn from her body and just as she was being overpowered Frank Wynn, a farmer, came upon the scene. The negro, frightened by the approach of Wynn's wagon, hurled his victim to the ground and leaping the fence, darted across Wynn's meadow. Wynn gave the alarm and in less than half an hour there were a score of farmers all armed with shot guns, in hot pursuit. Late tonight the posse are scouring the country in the vicinity of where the attack occurred, and there are open threats that if the negro is found he will be shot down.

Miss McElhaney's condition is serious. Besides suffering from the nervous shock, incident to the attack, the girl was terribly bruised by the rough handling of the negro.

When the man caught the girl she struck him with her books which she carried in a strap. This seemed to enrage him, and he attacked her with the ferocity of a lion. Miss McElhaney defended herself as best she could but was no match for her brutal assailant.

Another Candidate for Noose

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 9.—John Plowden, a negro aged 23 years, was rushed to the Hollidaysburg jail tonight to prevent a possible lynching.

Early today Plowden entered the home of John Perkins, a short disdistance west of this city, and, after binding and gaging Mrs. Perkins, assaulted her. School children, seeing the negro running from the house, gave the alarm and a posse was soon in pursuit of the fleeing negro. He kept his pursuers at bay by shooting at them. The police authorities were communicated with and arrested the negro at the home of a colored friend, where he had sought refuge.

Without legal formalities, the fiend was rushed to Holidaysburg. Neighbors who hurried to the Perkins' residence found the woman in a terrible condition from shock and the brutal treatment of the negro.

The neighborhood where the outrage was committed is aflame with indignation but the public at large is ignorant of the crime. A heavy guard has been placed about the jail at Hollidaysburg to prevent any attempt at lynching.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

Great Tribunal Again in Session—Many Important Cases.

Washington, Oct. 9.—A deluge of motions from 60-odd attorneys met the Supreme Court of the United States when it convened today after a four months' recess. The court then adjourned until tomorrow, when it will begin hearing cases.

Prominent among the many motions for early consideration were those involving the so-called Louisiana & Missouri rate cases, involving the question of State regulation of interstate commerce; the leasing of public coal lands; consolidation of Presbyterian churches throughout the country, and the constitutionality of the naturalization law of 1906.

Attorneys for the commonwealth of Virginia asked the court to "speed the cause" in the suit of the commonwealth against West Virginia to require the latter to bear a portion of the Virginia State debt at the time West Virginia became a State. The Supreme Court has handed down its opinion holding West Virginia should pay a portion of the debt. But it has not issued its mandate requiring West Virginia to do so.

BIBLE CRITICISM OF HIGHER SORT

General Debate Precipitated in Ecumenical Conference.

ENGLISH PROFESSOR LEAD IT

He Asserted That Biblical Criticism Leads to Christ—Gradual Disclosure of Spirit to Men—Bishop Hoss' Views

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 9.—A paper read before the Ecumenical Methodist Conference today by Professor A. A. Peake, of England, on "Permanent Results of Biblical Criticism," precipitated a general debate upon so-called "higher criticism." The propriety and even necessity, of criticism, were greatly concealed and the trend of opinion was that it "leads inevitably to Christ, the Divine Son of God, Saviour of the World."

Professor Peake defined the Bible as "The Record of God's gradual disclosure of the Spirit to Men," and said:

"Whatever the conclusion of criticism, the Bible remains a fact—a colossal fact. While the Bible contains doctrines of the highest importance, it is first of all a book of experimental religion. The truths it enshrines did not come simply as direct communications of theological propositions, but were realized throug.. doubts and misgivings, through long and perplexed groping, or through some sudden and illuminating flash of insight. It is this human element which gives the Bible such an appeal to the human heart.

Most of the speakers, who informally discussed criticism, upheld the modern viewpoint of the Scriptures. Professor Hope Moulton, of Manchester University, England, and others from that country, emphasized their belief that the critical attitude towards the sacred documents in no way affected the evangelical faith. Dr. F. M Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, said "John Wesley was a higher critic. He left some of the Pslams out of the Sunday service."

Bishop E. E. Hoss, of Nashville, Tenn., said:

"I am not seriously disturbed by real critics but there are too many pseudo-critics—men who absorb without information some of the theories of criticism. There is danger that the higher critics may themselves become traditionalists—slaves of a school of interpretation. It is not enough to rest our belief on experience. That experience strikes its roots in the historic Christ—the Christ of the New Testament records."

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred tonight on several members of the Ecumenical Conference by Toronto University, which today celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of the granting of its royal charter. Among those designated for degrees were Bishop John M Walden, of Cincinnati, and Bishop A. M. Wilson, of Baltimore.

STILL HOUNDING GOMPERS

New Proceedings Begpn in Washington—First Trial Illegal

Washington, Oct. 9.—The District of Columbia Supreme Court today vacated its judgment in the original Bucks Stove and Range injunction case contempt proceedings against President Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, in addition to the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States handed down last May. The Supreme Court held that the jail sentences against the labor leaders were illegal because the defendants were found guilty of criminal contempt in a civil case.

This decision, however, did not bar the District Court from instituting criminal contempt proceedings on its own motion, and this was promptly done by Justice Wright. There have been various technical skirmishes in the new proceedings, and it is expected that a bearing will be given within the next few weeks.

FOUR KILLED.

Dynamite Explosion in New York Brings Death to Laborers.

New York, Oct. 9.—Four men were killed and six injured today by an explosion of dynamite 60 feet under ground in a shaft under Central Park where they were working on the Aqueduct for the Catskill water system.

The dead men were all Italian laborers. Michael Kearney, foreman of the gang, and John Waco, a workman, may die.

Kearney and John W. Martin, the night superintendent of the work, were arrested on charges of criminal negligence.

The shaft where the explosion occurred is being drilled and blasted through solid rock and is about 16 feet in diameter.

A drill in charge of one of the men struck the explosive and immediately tons of rock shot into the air, crushing the men.

PROBING CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

Senator Stephenson's Managers Claim They Could Have Spent $200,000 Legitimately—Effrontery of Witnesses Astonishing.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 9.—Out of the testimony given today before the United States Senate Committee, which is investigating charges that bribery contributed to the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson, was developed evidence that the Stephenson campaign managers, regarded the $107,793 admittedly expended, as small compared to the $150,000 or $200,000 which might have been spent on a more systematic campaign.

The expensiveness of the campaign was declared to be partly due to a close fight between two factions in the Republican party in Wisconsin, one headed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette and the other by Senator Stephenson, a "regular" Republican.

As showing Senator Stephenson's position, and also as showing that he had to spend liberally to advertise, campaign literature was read into the record, stating that Senator Stephenson was a believer in the Roosevelt ideas and as such was bound to support Mr. Taft for President.

The statement from Fordney Sackett, one of the Stephenson campaign managers, that $150,000 or $200,000 might legitimately have been spent for the Senatorial nomination, brought forth comment from Senator Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio, a member of the committee.

"If $107,000 is not enough to nominate a United States Senator in Wisconsin, how much is the position worth and what could you do with $200,000 legitimately to secure for a man a position with a $7,500 annual salary?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"We could have been more systematic," answered Sackett. "There are approximately 400,000 Republicans in the State. Had we the money we should have personally canvassed each voter. This estimate would have cost from $150,000 to $200,000. As it was, with our means limited to a little over $100,000, we could not see each voter and had to get along the best we could."

Senator Stephenson's vote, it was shown, was 56,800 out of a total of 224,000 votes cast.

Answering questions bearing directly on the charges against Senator Stephenson, Sackett testified:

"That money out of Senator Stephenson's funds had been given to State officials, as in the instance of State Game Warden J. W. Stone, who was given $2,500 to work up sentiment in favor of the Senator.

"That money was paid to candidates for office, as in the case of seven candidates for the Legislature, three of whom were elected. Although the three men elected afterwards voted for Senator Stephenson," the witness declared, "it was not known when the money was given them that they were candidates.

That no complete detailed accounts of the campaign expenses were kept and that all records after the campaign were destroyed.

The statements contained in this testimony were declared in the original charges presented to the United States Senate to show violations of the Wisconsin statutes.

The assertion that part of Senator Stephenson's heavy expenses were due to his desire to make it generally known that he was a supporter of Mr. Taft for the Presidency, came when Sackett, in explaining an advertising bill of $12,696, was required to produce before the committee one of the advertisements.

WEIGHTS OF COTTON

Secretary Hester Issues Statement of Averages at the Ports

New Orleans, October 9.—Secretary Hester today issued a statement of weights of 1,259,788 bales of cotton handled at ports and across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers overland to American manufacturers outside of the cotton belt during the month of September, showing an average per bale of 524.87 against 530.05 pounds for the same period last year.

The delayed averages are:

Texas ports, 532.71 against 546.10 last year.

Louisiana ports, 536.47 against 527.05 last year.

Alabama ports, 542.66 against 533.59 last year.

Georgia ports, 532.70 against 509.05 last year.

South Carolina ports, 495 against 495 last year.

North Carolina ports, 499 against 504 last year.

Virginia ports, 490 against 495 last year.

Tennessee ports, 523.42 against 523.95 last year.

THE LOAN APPROVED

Nicaraguan Government Borrows the Money from New Yorkers

Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 9.—The Nicaraguan Congress by a vote of 25 to 6 today ratified the proposed loan of the American bankers.

The loan, approved by Congress, is for $15,000,000 at 90 1-2. It was negotiated by Ernest H. Wands, the American financial adviser to the Nicaraguan government with Brow Brothers and J. & W. Seligman & Co., of New York.

Congress also approved a temporary loan of $1,500,000 from the same bankers at par.

The plans include a reform of the monetary system, the establishment of an American bank and the construction of a transcontinental railroad.

STRIKE SITUATION IS LITTLE CHANGED

Four Companies of Militia Sent From McComb City to Guard a Train.

TROOPS FEARING VIOLENCE

Governor Noel to Call Conference of Executives of States Affected by the Strike—No Results Yesterday

Natchez, Miss., Oct. 9.—A long distance telephone message from McComb City says four companies of militia had been sent up the Illinois Central Railroad summit in anticipation of an attack on a special train which is scheduled to leave McComb, bearing two coaches of strike-breakers from that city. It was reported a number of strikers have secreted themselves along the line a short distance from McComb.

At 10:30 o'clock, Companies D and H, Second Regiment, under Captain McCantz, and Companies B and H, Third Regiment, under Capt. Walker, left McComb City for Summit which is in the same county as McComb. The strike-breakers will leave at midnight.

Governors' Conference.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 9.—Governor Noel, of Mississippi, announced tonight that he would ask the governors of the 14 States affected by the strike of the Illinois Central shopmen and clerks to meet in joint conference with representatives of the railroad and the strikers in an effort to bring the dispute to an end.

The suggestion that the governor call the meeting of State executives was made by McComb City business men, who attended the conference held in the office of the governor today and participated in by President Markham, of the Illinois Central; United States Senator John Sharp Williams, Mayor Crowder, of Jacksonville, and representatives of the striking crafts. Today's meeting was without definite results.

FOOL KILLER AND LIE NAILER.

John Armstrong Chaloner to Publish Quarterly Newspaper.

Charlottesville, Oct. 9.—Four battles a year with "editorial gladiators" who obscure truth and oppress the weak, is John Armstrong Chaloner's programme for himself as editor of his quarterly newspaper, "Confederacy and Solid South," the first issue of which appeared in North Carolina a year ago. As Caesar at the age of 50 was forced to abandon law for arms, so Chaloner, a lawyer and 50 years old, now feels called to forsake his profession to operate his quarterly, "not only as a mirror of the times, but to be an advocate for those who have no defenders in public journals."

Chaloner spent three hours before United States Commissioner Booth today, continuing the deposition to be used in the United States Circuit Court of New York in his suit for control of his $1,500,000 estate and for rights as a sane citizen. He denounced newspapers generally, giving particular attention to certain publications against which he has pending suits for damages aggregating a million and a half dollars. "I make it my business said he, "to be fool killer and lie nailer as regards editorial gladiators. I know the job I've undertaken, and so will have but four battles a year. Only greatest offenders will be treated."

Speaking as an authority, Chaloner praised Henry Watterson's strictures on New York's "four hundred", though he said there were honorable men and virtuous women in the social set.

KILLED WHILE RIDING.

Death of Prominent Railroad Man in Virginia.

Hot Springs, Va., Oct. 9.—Archar Harman, a prominent railroad man of New York and Ecuador, died here today from injuries sustained yesterday in a fall from his horse. Drs. Fisher, Finney and Thomas, of Johns Hopkins University, arriving here early today by special train, performed an operation in a vain attempt to save Mr. Harmon's life by relieving brain pressure from a fractured skull.

The accident occurred while Mr. Harman was riding with his daughter to Fassefern Farm, where they expected to entertain a luncheon party. They were spending some time at a hotel at this resort. The body will be taken to Staunton, Va., tomorrow for burial.

Mr. Harman was president of the Guayaquil & Quito Railroad, Ecuador, and was prominently identified with other large South American railroad enterprises. He was born in Richmond, Va., but had spent most of his life in foreign countries. His widow, who was Miss Mary Lee, of Louisville, Ky., lives at Milford, Pa.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 9—After making several successful flights in his biplane equipped with pontoons for alighting on the water, Capt. Fred M. Alger and Aviator Frank Coffey dropped into Lake St. Clair yesterday. The fall was only a short one and neither man was injured.

For today C. H. Fore & Co., will offer a good bleached sheeting for 25c per yard. **

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The Philadelphia and Boston teams wound up their championship season with a doubleheader here today. The visitors hit the ball hard, Sweeney leading with seven safeties and won both games. Boston made a triple play in the first game when Ingerton caught a low line drive off Knabe's bat, Sweeney and Houser assisting in the play. Walsh pitched a few innings and also played at first base, giving him a record of having played in every position in championship games this season.

GROOM COMMITTED SUICIDE

Army Official Shot Himself Few Hours After Ceremony

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 9.—Scarcely six hours after he had married Miss Gladys Caruthers, Second Lieutenant John R. Lynch, Third Cavalry, U. S. A., killed himself at Fort Sam Houston today. The marriage ceremony was performed at 1 A. M.. He was alone in his room about 7 o'clock when two pistol shots were heard. Fellow officers bursting through the locked door found the man dying. One bullet penetrated the body near the heart. It is presumed he feared this would not prove fatal and fired the second shot, the bullet passing through the roof of the mouth into the brain. No cause for the tragedy has been determined.

Lieutenant Lynch enlisted in the army as private in Missouri in 1907. In August, 1910, he became a second lieutenant. He served in the artillery until August, 1910, when he was transferred to the Third Cavalry and assigned to Troop M. His father and sister are thought to reside in Los Angeles, Cal.

PHILADELPHIA MOTOR RACES.

Bergdoll Made Record in Daring Long Distance Dash.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.— Averaging more than 61 miles an hour for the entire distance, Erwin Bergdoll, a young Philadelphia amateur automobile driver belonging to a wealthy family, risked his life and won fame today by capturing the fourth annual 202 1-2 miles road race over the Fairmount Park course with a 40-horse power Benz. The daring Bergdoll not only lowered the record for the lap, but also reduced by about 11 minutes the Fairmount park record for the distance of the race. His time was 3:18:-41.35. He reduced the lap record from 7 minutes, 38 seconds, to 7 minutes, 28 seconds for the 8.1 miles. Wishart, of Greenwich, L. I., another amateur driver, finished second, in a 90-horse power Mercedes, in 3:20:11 42-100.

Ralph Mulford, driving a Lozier, was third in 3:21:52 78-100. Len Zengle, who won the race last year, was fourth, in a National, in 3:25:59 36-100, and Louis Disbrow, also driving a National, finished in fifth place, in 3:28:-22 32-100.

Harry Grant, a two-time Vanderbilt cup winner, driving a Lozier, was sixth, in 3:28:50.37; Hughie Hughes, in a Mercer, seventh, time 3:29:45.30; Gil Anderson, in a Stutz, eighth, time 3:40:23.05, and Donald Herr, ninth, in a National, time 3:40:33.87.

Bergdoll received $2,500 for winning the race and an additional 1,000 for being the fastest car in division 6-C., of the classification of cars under the rules of the American Automobile Association; Wishart received $1,000 for the fastest time in division 5-C.; Disbrow $1,000 for the fastest time in division 4-C., and Hughes $1,000 for the fastest time in 3-C.

The race was the most successful yet held by the Quaker City Motor Club, not a contestant nor a spectator being injured while the race was on. It was estimated by the police that a quarter of a million people witnessed the stirring event.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

Cash and Checks Rolling In—New York Giant's Record

New York, Oct. 9. — With the world's series almost at hand, interest developed today over the possibilities of the New York Giants' ending the season with its record tied with that established by the Philadelphia Americans. New York easily won from Brookly today, making a record of 99 games won and 51 games lost, as compared with Philadelphia's record of 101 victories and 50 defeats.

While the Athletics have no chance to improve their record, since their season is ended, the Giants have four games to play, all with Brooklyn, to which they have lost but two out of 18 games played. With victories in all four contests, the Giants' record would show a percentage of .669, equalling that of their Philadelphia rivals.

The first whisper of trouble in the condition of the New York players picked for the world's series got among the fans tonight because of a slight injury to Captain Larry Doyle, who turned his ankle while running around first base in the sixth inning in today's game. He retired from the game and this caused anxiety, as Doyle is one of the hardest hitters in the club and is expected to play an important part in the title series. He assured inquiries that he was certain his ankle would have no effect upon his appearance next Saturday.

Applications for tickets to the games continued to pour in at the baseball offices today, laden with small fortunes in checks and money orders. The tide of incoming mail will turn tomorrow to an outgoing one with the first issue of tickets.

WOLGAST AND WELLS.

Ten-Round Bout at Coney Island, October 28th—The Terms.

New York, Oct. 9.—Ad Wolgast, the champion lightweight of the world, and Matt Wells, the English champion, will meet in a ten-round bout at the Beach Palace Athletic Club, at Coney Island, October 28th. Announcement of the bout which was arranged several days ago, but called off because of an insufficient guarantee for Wolgast, was re-made tonight by Geo. McDonald, manager for Wells.

McDonald announced that Wolgast had been guaranteed $22,000 and Wells $10,000, to be placed in their hands before the fight, and an agreement had been signed today for the men to meet. In addition to his guarantee the world's champion will receive 40 per cent. of the gate receipts and a like percentage will go to Wells.

MINE EXPLOSION.

Seven Injured, Two Seriously, in Colorado Mine Accident.

Telluride, Colo., Oct. 9.—Seven men were injured, two seriously, today in an explosion of dynamite that destroyed the shaft house of the Lewis mine, eight miles from here. The men were fighting a fire in the mine. The injured were caught by falling timbers. The property damage is small.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 9.—Knockout Brown, of Chicago, and Harry Lewis, of Philadelphia, claimant to the welter weight championship, fought eight fast rounds to a draw tonight before the Southern Athletic Club.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

TRIAL OF McNAMARA BROTHERS

Charged With Blowing Up Los Angeles Times Building

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 9.—The trial of the McNamara brothers, both of whom are under indictment for murder in connection with the explosion which wrecked the Los Angeles Times on October 1st, 1910, was virtuallly begun here today before Superior Judge Walter Bordwell, although perhaps nobody except District Attorney John D. Fredericks knew whether John J., or James B. McNamara will sit in the prisoner's chair when the case formally is called day after tomorrow. Indications pointed to Jas B McNamara as the first man to be tried.

Of the 125 men named in the first venire of prospective jurymen, 122 responded to a call for preliminary examination and at the close of court Judge Bordwell had weeded this number down to forty-five, who were instructed to return Wednesday.

All veniremen were excused who were able to show that their business would suffer if they became jurors in a trial of long duration.

Whichever man goes on trial Wednesday, the defense, it was said tonight, will be the same—that the Times building was destroyed by gas and fire and not by dynamite and fire.

Out beyond the hills north of town, there has been conducted a series of secret explosive experiments. Repeated discharges of gas and dynamite have plowed up the earth in order that any difference in the action of the two explosives might be shown.

Beyond the results of these experiments, spectators at the trial will see a miniature business block, complete to the most minute detail, set on a table before the jury. The structure is a model of the Los Angeles Times building with one side cut away to show tiny printing presses, linotype machines, desks and all the machinery of a great newspaper office. By this model the defense hopes to demonstrate the effects of the explosion in accordance with its theory.

There will not be a session of court tomorrow, because of a State election on proposed constitutional amendments.

SHORTAGE AT NAVY YARD

Discrepancy of More Than Three Million Dollars

Washington, October 9.—A discrepancy of over $3,288,271 between the material on hand and that called for by the books of the Washington navy yard, was shown by the inventory of that yard just completed, according to an announcement by Secretary of the Navy Meyer today. This is the first inventory of record made at this yard within the last 25 years.

The discrepancy is attributed to loose book-keeping methods which Secretary Meyer set out some time ago to correct.

The Washington yard was the last to have the new accounting system established, the Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Norfolk, Portsmouth, N. H., Puget Sound, Mare Island, Charleston, S. C., Cavite and Olongapo yards preceding Washington.

The Navy Department officials stated explicidly that there were no indication whatever that moral turpitude was involved in the discrepancy and that it undoubtedly was due to the antiquated book-keeping methods.

LOW COTTON NOT JUSTIFIED.

Texas Takes Lead to Prevent Depreciation of Price.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 9.—Suggesting that the depreciation in the price of cotton is not justified by the supply, and proposing that a conference between Governors and commissioners of Agriculture of Southern States be held with a view to preventing price depreciation, Governor Colquitt today sent a telegram to the governors of Southern States, recommending the plan. Governor Colquitt believes, he says, that Texas, as the chief cotton producing State, should take the lead in the matter.

FELL ASLEEP IN BOAT'S HOLD

Narrowly Missed Being Carried to Liverpool from Savannah

Savannah, Oct. 9.—Nothing but the courtesy of Capt. Steinbridge, master of the English cotton steamer Berwinmoor, prevented Alfred Stiles, colored, of Savannah, from becoming a temporary subject of King George, of England.

Stiles fell asleep in the hold of the steamer Pathan, which sailed from Savannah for Liverpool on October 1st and did not awake until the following day when the steamer was 200 miles at sea. After hard work he forced his way out of the vessel's hold through the battened hatches and told his story to the captain.

The Berwinmoor was signaled in passing; a small boat put out from the Pathan carrying Stiles to the Berwinmoor. There was some difficulty in making the transfer on account of the rough seas. But Stiles was landed at Newport News, Va., where he wired Savannah for funds to return. The Pathan continued to Liverpool.

On returning to Savannah it was with some difficulty that the members of his union persuaded Stiles to resume work on the river front.

REWARD FOR MURDERERS

Governor Issues Proclamation—Convocation of Raleigh.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—At the request of Solicitor Johnson, of Marion, Governor Kitchin today offered a reward for Parm Peterson and Bob Peterson—$200, for each of them, as the slayer of Robert McCay in Yancey county, September 22nd. The two men hae fled the State or are in hiding in some of the mountain coves. The killing was at Green Mountain. They seriously wounded two negroes at the same time that they killed McCay.

Christ Episcopal church will entertain the Convocation of Raleigh this week, the opening service to be Tuesday evening when Rev. Isaac W. Lughes, of Henderson, will deliver the opening sermon. Prominent ministers and laymen from every part of the diocese are to take part in the programme which continues through Thursday. Also there will be an address by Rev. W H. Milton, of Wilmington, of the Eastern Carolina diocese, and by other visiting clergy.

HOW TO TREAT OLD SORES

The proper way—the only successful way— to treat an old sore is to destroy its source. Not by dangerous surgical operations or irritating, "drawing" plasters, but by Nature's true method of purifying the blood and filling the circulation with rich, nourishing properties; then the cure will be natural and lasting. We can easily understand how impurities in the blood will infect some weak point on our bodies, and by continually discharging impurities into it keep the place open and inflamed until a chronic ulcer is formed. Nothing then is so sure to produce a cure of these old sores as S. S. S. This medicine is Nature's perfect blood remedy, composed of the most healing and at the same time the most penetrating and blood-purifying properties. It removes every particle of impurity or morbid matter from the circulation, and assists nature in the increasing of healthful, nutritious corpuscles in the blood. S. S. S. makes pure blood, and pure blood is Nature's unfailing cure for old sores. Every sufferer with an old sore should use S. S. S., because it is the remedy they most need. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free. S.S.S. is sold at drug stores.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Former Clerk of Court Convicted—Dr. Walker's Estate—Football Complication—Two Charters Issued—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—Sheriff E. S. Norman, of Chowan county, was here today to deliver to the penitentiary C. W. Confield, ex-Clerk of the Court of Chowan county, who is to serve three years for a $1,700 shortage in his accounts. He sreved only one term and defeated a man who had held the office for 16 years.

Col. W. P. Wood, Secretary of State, who has the personal supervision of the affairs of the North Carolina Soldiers' Home, ex-officio, says the Home will make a demand on the estate of the late Dr. Geo. W. Walker, for about $650 expense to which the State was put in the care of Walker for the nearly four years that he was an inmate of the Home. He has reason to believe, he says, that there will be no serious objection raised to the payment of this claim. The estate is valued at least at $10,000.

A charter is issued for the Bank of Townsville, Vance county, capital $25,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by C. W. Morrow and others for general banking business. Another charter is for the Hanks Lumber Co., Newbern, capital $25,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by W. H. Hanks and others.

The police raided last night a blind tiger in a shack close by the Baptist Square and captured 75 half-pint bottles of whiskey. The "tiger", a negro, escaped leaving his cap behind. This will be used in tracing him by the police.

Especially set for re-argument this week in connection with the calendar for the Seventh District appeals in the Supreme Court is the long-standing case of Roanoke Rapids Power Co. vs. Roanoke Navigation Co. This is a suit involving probably $1,000,000 in water power rights at Roanoke Rapids that was decided for the plaintiff a year ago and is now to be re-argued on petition of the defendant. The riparian rights on Roanoke river are involved and the case is being especially hard fought. The other Seventh District appeals are: Currie vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway Co.; Autry vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co.; Kochs vs. Jackson; Gaylord vs. McKoy; McKellar vs. McKay.

A report from Norfolk to the effect that the management of the V. P. I. football team is not inclined to let Robertson, Seifert and Stafford, the "big three" of the A. & M. College team, play in the proposed great Thanksgiving game between these two teams on the ground that they are ineligible on account of having played last season in the Tidewater League, is not credited by the management of the A. & M. team here. But it is freely stated by numbers of those in touch with the management that if this issue should be raised and insisted upon, it would result in the calling off of the game entirely. It is insisted that the Tidewater League is purely amateur and that the fact that these boys played in this league in no way disqualifies them for college ball. Bob Williams, of the V. P. I. team, is quoted as saying that the "big three" would be ruled out of the game.

The State Department of Agriculture received an urgent appeal today from Florida orange interests for co-operation in preventing the sale in this State of green Florida oranges, which, it is said, will be shipped out to the detriment of the Florida orange industry and in violation of the pure food laws this season. A reward of $100 is offered for the seizure of the first car of these contraband oranges which are alleged to be a menace to the health of the people. Commissioner Graham says he will lend whatever aid he can in this movement and in the interest of having North Carolina supplied with only standard healthful oranges.

PACE TAKES APPEAL

Newbern Man's Bond Fixed at $2,500—Not Yet Given

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Oct. 9.—Through his attorneys, Messrs. Moore and Dunn, Hugh Napoleon Pace, the Wake county man, who was sentenced to a term of five years in the State prison Saturday for seducing Miss Henrietta Daugherty, under promise of marriage, has taken an appeal to the Supreme Court. The appeal bond was fixed at $2,500. Up to the present time Pace has not been able to get this bond.

There is not the least doubt in the minds of all who are familiar with the case but that the Supreme Court will affirm the decision of the lower court and that Pace will yet have to serve his sentence. Although his father has made strenuous efforts to secure the amount necessary to give the bond, he had failed to do it late this afternoon. Judge Carter instructed the clerk of the court to be very careful in accepting the bond in the case, and if one was secured to be absolutely certain that it was bona fide in every respect.

Hicks Bunting Drug Co., will tell of many of their customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale and haggard, but who are now, through the use of Samose, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and attractive flesh. They have seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Samose to restore the weak and sick to strength and health, and to make good natural flesh that they hive their personal guarantee with every package of Samose they sell to refund the money if it does not prove satisfactory.

Samose is a pure preparation, and can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak and run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind and in addition it strengthens every organ of the body, restoring strength and health to the whole system.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Monroe, N. C., Oct. 9.—Saturday night was marked by two attempted burglaries here. In one house a young lady was shot, the bullet striking and breaking her thumb, while in the other house the occupants were badly frightened. In each case the trespasser was a negro. One arrest has been made, but the chances are, according to the police, that the negro arrested is not the man wanted.

The first burglary was at the residence of Mr. W. W. Horne, on Washington street. About 1 o'clock two young ladies, who are boarding at Mr. Horne's, awoke to find the electric light in their room burning and a negro man searching the bureau drawers. As soon as the negro saw that they were awake, he ordered them to be quiet, pointing his pistol at them and saying he would shoot if they made any noise. One of the young ladies began screaming and the negro opened fire at them as they were lying in bed. Accounts are confused as to the number of shots fired. It is certain, however, that one bullet was found in the pillow on which rested the head of one of the young women, and another bullet struck and broke her thumb, she having her hand raised to her head. The screams of the young women aroused other occupants in the house, and the negro ran from the room and jumped from an upstairs porch and made his escape. Nothing is reported to have been stolen.

A negro man named Ed Smith was caught by the officers shortly after the breaking. The officers caught him in several lies as to what he had done with his pistol, and locked him up. The young lady who was shot did not identify the negro, and he is being held on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The second house broken into was the Caldwell boarding house, in another section of town from Mr. Horne's residence. This second breaking occurred at about 3 o'clock in the morning. A lady in the house, on the second floor, was awakened by some slight noise, and saw a negro man standing at the door of the bedroom. She awoke her husband, and he also saw the negro and demanded what he was doing. Upon receiving no answer this gentleman sprang from the bed exclaiming, "I'll get you," and the negro pushed the door to softly and ran. He ran down stairs with the gentleman after him and ran through the house and out at the back door.

The young ladies at Mr. Horne's were so frightened by the occurrence that they can give no satisfactory description of the burglar, neither can a satisfactory description be obtained of the man who did the second breaking at the Caldwell boarding house. The police have several negroes under suspicion, but with the exception of Ed Smith, no arrests have been made.

INDIAN BRUTE'S CRIME.

Rushed to Asheville to Escape Irate Waynesville People.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 8.—Ross French, 21 years old, a Cherokee Indian living on the Birdtown reservation, Swain county, was safely locked in the county jail here tonight, charged with the murder of Ethel Shuler, the 14-year-old daughter of a Birdtown farmer, after having attempted to criminally assault her. His arrival here was effected after an exciting escape from a mob of 100 men bent on lynching the prisoner.

The body of the dead girl was found Friday in the woods near the town with her throat cut and no trace of her assailant was found until this morning, when Deputy Sheriff Beck, of Swain county, arrested French at a point seven miles from Sylvia. The arrest was made on the strength of blood-stained finger prints on the Indian's hat.

The news of French's capture spread quickly to the neighboring towns and a mob of 100 men followed the deputy sheriff to Waynesville, where French was lodged in jail. As the mob continued to grow the sheriff called out the militia and the crowd was dispersed. Beck then took his prisoner through the back door of the jail to a waiting automobile. At Clyde, 20 miles from this city, the depuy sheriff boarded an Asheville-bound train, arriving here at 6:30 tonight.

At 8 o'clock tonight the Indian made a partial confession, but would not give full details of the crime.

Telephone messages from Waynesville tonight stated that threats of lynching were being freely made there.

When captured this morning French claimed that the blood stains on his hat were those of an owl which he had shot in the woods. Tonight he stated that the girl made a desperate fight and that she had hit him in the head with a rock. He said he did not intend to harm her, but had asked her to accompany him into the woods. He denies any effort at criminal assault.

LORIMER INQUIRY AGAIN.

Senator's Private Secretary Will be One of First Witnesses.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—When the Federal Senate committee investigating the election of Senator William Lorimer, of Illinois, resumes its sessions here tomorrow, John M. Pfeffers, of Aurora, former private secretary to United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins, probably will be one of the first witnesses called. Former State Senator Geo. McCormick, of Alton, and State Senator Frank L. Landee, of Moline, are slated to follow Pfeffers.

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—Woman suffrage appears to be the paramount issue of a special election to be held throughout California tomorrow when 23 proposed amendments to the State constitution will be voted upon. Even the initiative and referendum and the recall have been relegated to secondary positions by the strenuous exponents of suffrage.

SWOLLEN SO BAD LIFE A BURDEN

That is What Lady in Craig Told Her Friend, who Finally Helped Her to Obtain Relief.

Craig, Neb.—Mrs. Annie Dye, of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles, as only those who have such troubles can know.

I had backache and bearing down pains and my body and limbs became so swollen that it was only with great difficulty I could get up on my feet.

Life had become almost a burden for me, when a friend recommended Cardui, the woman's tonic.

I began to take Cardui, and within a short time there was a very great improvement.

I continued its use and the swelling left my limbs. Now I feel like a different person. I am fifty-four years old and feel as well as anyone of my age.

Cardui has carried me though some very serious ailments without the aid of a doctor. I would not like to be without it in the house."

Cardui is the ideal tonic remedy for women. Its ingredients are especially adapted for women's needs. It relieves pain, helps weakness, nervousness, dragging sensations, headache, backache, and similar symptoms of female trouble.

Being a vegetable remedy, Cardui has no ill effects. Cardui acts in a natural way, and is adapted for the use of both young and old.

Grand Fall OPENING!

PROVED

And it demonstrates the fact that the public are quick to appreciate a departure from "OLD-TIME" high prices on certain classes of goods.

It has always been customary to charge Big Profits on all millinery goods, for the reason that it is chiefly sold during certain periods during the year. But our trade is so large and our stock so great that we have put all millinery articles on an equal footing as to price with all other goods in our big store, and the result is that we have doubled the sales of any previous season.

Thanking our friends and patrons for their liberal patronage, we shall endeavor to still continue to merit same by giving the best values for the least money.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Money, matrimony, alimony, and more money.

Many a self-made man will not think much of his job when his wife takes hold of him and begins her work of "making a new man of him."

Everybody should be proud of the fact that he or she knows how to work. To be without knowledge of taking care of ourselves might be attributed to stupidity.

Gaby Deslys is now getting her picture in the New York papers and is giving out interviews that indicate how the Parisian danseuse got her distorted point of view.

What would happen to Central and South America if it weren't for the Monroe Doctrine and a navy to interpret it? Peace pacts may help out, and they may not. It is for Congress to decide and not the President.

If Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, can prove that the $107,793 spent by him in his campaign did not go to purchase the Senatorship, he should urge the passage of a law to prohibit leg pulling when a millionaire wants an office.

Nat Goodwin, who has had several matrimonial experiences, is quoted as saying: "Women are finer than men. They have nobler ideals." It would appear so, but look at some of the kinds of men they pick out for husbands.

The Asheville Citizen, of Sunday, states upon the authority of the Hon. Locke Craig that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in next year's election. Since Mr. Craig is favorable to his own nomination, doesn't that about make it unanimous?

A few days ago President Taft roasted Col. Bryan at Detroit, and a few days afterwards Col. Bryan toasted President Taft at Lincoln. After the President left Lincoln, Col. Bryan roasted the President for roasting him in a couple of his speeches. This is a roasting and toasting campaign.

Why do not editors investigate Governor Kitchin's reasons for the pardons he grants and then criticise or defend his acts on the merits of each case? Indiscriminate criticism without the fullest inquiry into the reasons for the exercise of executive clemency, places the Governor of North Carolina in a false light. No just editor would like to do that.

The Durham Herald observes: "If good roads are worth five thousand dollars a mile in such counties as Durham, Guilford and Mecklenburg, they should be worth a few hundred dollars a mile in any county in the State." Good roads may cost $5,000 a mile, but they are worth a great deal more than that. In fact, it is hard to estimate their worth. To provide a country with good roads is the next thing to a railroad as a factor of development.

When a man is willing to spend $107,793 to be elected United States Senator, it is presumptive evidence that he wasn't very particular how it was spent just so it accomplished results. Even if there has been no actual bribery and no real purchase of votes, in the campaign of Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, the expenditure of such a vast amount of money is bound to have debauched and demoralized many men who spent it or who were given picnics, cigars and liquor ad libitum. Senator Stephenson may not be indictable for any crime, but no man is guiltless who would engage in a campaign in which he realized that dollars sometimes count where arguments would have no effect.

BELT LINES FOR INDUSTRIES

Railroad belt lines encircling a city and connecting with all the transportation lines, cap the climax of all the other advantages a city may have for the location of industries, either great or small. The Raleigh Times realizes that and is agitating a belt line for Raleigh. Says the Times:

"Along with other developments Raleigh needs a belt line railroad, encircling the eastern section of the city. A survey for such a line, from Caraleigh to Pamlico Junction, was made some years ago. Would it not be a good time to revive such a project? Such a line would afford numerous factory sites and greatly facilitate the handling of freight. With other road building, which it is practically assured will be done in the next two or three years, such a line will not only be a convenience but a necessity."

The Times is making an industrial ten strike. Where a city has actual advantages for manufacturing, its industrial possibilities are greatly magnified by a belt line, for it not only furnishes suitable locations for factories but it is a great saver in transportation and drayage charges. To encircle Raleigh with a belt line will cost probably $150,000 but it would be a paying investment since it would add ten fold to its opportunities for manufacturing. Raleigh is now in a position, or soon will be, to secure power by transmission from two great hydro-electric power plants on the Cape Fear and Yadkin rivers, and, chiefly, it is transportation and power that makes a city specially eligible for manufacturing plants. With her electric power on tap and railroad transportation lines, it is easy to observe how much more available would be those advantages if a belt line were built to make an ideal industrial centre.

Wilmington furnishes a splendid example of the great utility of a belt line, and while the line here is largely utilized, it is done so unconsciously that the business men of the city hardly stop to realize its tremendous importance to the commercial and industrial life of the city. People right in Wilmington will be astonished to know that about forty industries are established on our belt line, besides practically all the wholesale grocery establishments of the city and numerous business enterprises that are not taken in account.

What a utility of tremendous importance is Wilmington's belt line, yet we go about our daily affairs hardly giving it any consideration, and especially without realizing what a tremendous factor we could make it in any really practical effort to attract industries to Wilmington. Few cities of the South have belt lines, but we know of several cities that would like to have them and are agitating the expenditure of from $150,000 to $500,000 for what Wilmington already has.

It costs money to build belt lines, but Wilmington has one already without worrying over needing one and without having to spend a cent for what should be an exceptionally powerful factor in making Wilmington the greatest manufacturing city on the South Atlantic. Other cities have a belt line to get. Wilmington has a capital one, and just how tremendous a proposition it is can be conceived when we state that Wilmington's belt line has transportation connection with six railroads, including two of the South's great railway systems, and with the port's harbor which affords a foreign, coastwise and inland water commerce of about $65,000,000 annually! Wilmington's belt railroad runs right along the wharves and from its tracks we can toss a stone into the channel which bears ships laden with as high as 18,000 bales of cotton. All along the harbor front runs that belt line, and outside and around the city it goes, so that trains can run clear around the city in either direction and come back where they started. The tracks run in the city where the municipal tax prevails and outside where the low county tax rate obtains Choice of location can be had for industries and business establishments of all sizes, and wherever they are located in or near the city, they have the advantage of direct transportation connection with rail and water traffic to all parts of the world. They can receive or ship raw products and manufactured products by rail or water, and we venture the assertion that in these enormous economical advantages Wilmington stands unrivalled. The possibilities of this utility are startling, but we refuse to be startled and hardly stop to contemplate that Wilmington is encircled with what many cities would give millions of dollars to possess—a belt line in touch with steamships that plow all the oceans and with railroads that have connections from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

On Wilmington's water front a cargo can be unloaded from a ship into freight cars or into warehouses to be shipped by rail at convenience. Some of Wilmington's grocery jobbers can unload a ship on one side of their warehouses and load freight trains on the other side. Carload shipments can literally be made without drayage expenses. We do not believe Wilmington has yet waked up to the tremendous factor encompassed in the belt line for making Wilmington the greatest manufacturing centre in the South. Will we have to blow up ourselves with dynamite before we can awake to the absolutely unparalelled opportunity we have to attract industries to Wilmington?

Let us stop to think how we already appreciate the unrivalled advantages of Wilmington's belt line. On it is practically every industry in Wilmington—fertilizer factories, saw mills, merchant mills, peanut factories, candy factories, pine products factories, box factories, machine shops, marine railway, cotton compresses, an extensive winery, coal yards, woodyards, wholesale groceries, wholesale fruit establishments, commission and brokerage houses, etc. Those interested in these enterprises can appreciate what the belt line means in the saving of freights and drayage, and all the people of Wilmington should wake up to the fact that we should emphasize the belt line and its water and rail connections when we speak of the advantages of Wilmington as a manufacturing centre.

PRODIGALITY OF GOOD THINGS.

The great agricultural versatility of Pender county land is shown in the fact that Col. E. D. Pearsall, of Rocky Point, has this season produced on the same land a first crop of Irish potatoes and a second of sweet potatoes, both yielding tremendously, in accordance with the great capacity and fertility of Pender county soil.

This country produces such a prodigality of good things that it is simply one tempting thing right after another. Pender county is famous everywhere for everything that's good, and frequently we have been placed under obligations to our friend Colonel Pearsall for fine specimens of Pender products. He began in the Spring with fine strawberries, then he sent us some glorious peaches, a basket of of fine apples followed, later to be followed by baskets of luscious scuppernong grapes, and finally a lot of mammoth yams.

Every product of the Rocky Point region is a prize winner, and surely those sugary yams of Col. Pearsall's are entitled to the blue ribbon. They were fine of quality and in size they were enormous, some of them weighing several pounds. They came labeled so as to furnish, according to Col. Pearsall, a "potatorial forecast of the Senatorial race." The biggest in the bunch was "The Funny Simmon Yam," the next was "The Charley Aycock Yam," and the third was "The Billy Kitchin Yam."

They surely were bumper potatoes and the remarkable part of it was that the sweet potatoes were the second crop grown on the same land. Col. Pearsall's first crop was a fine yield of early Irish potatoes with which he tickled the palates of New Yorkers, and as late as June 20th, he planted yams with the result that he has the second crop of the finest which have come to our agricultural museum. Col. Pearsall makes the marvelous statement that his two successive crops of Irish and sweet potatoes were grown on the same land within eight months from the first planting to the last. As the crops in this region are still growing, Col. Pearsall's yams have not done their best and till November 6th still have a chance to outdo themselves.

BRYAN VS. TAFT.

President Taft came out second best in his recent attack on the Hon. William J. Bryan for certain opinions expressed by the distinguished Nebraskan concerning the effectiveness of the Sherman anti-trust law as interpreted by the Supreme Court. In a speech at Detroit, Mich., the President challenged Col. Bryan to produce an example of restraint of trade that would not come within the scope of the Supreme Court decisions in the Standard Oil and Tobacco trust cases. In the first instance, Mr. Taft spoke of the Nebraskan's criticisms as "glib", and in his second reference, in a speech at Cherryville, Kansas, he repeated his challenge to the Nebraska statesman. Col. Bryan hasn't done a thing but reply in the Commoner in a way that will embarrass the President should he decide to answer a few questions propounded by the Colonel. If the Nebraskan gets all his questions answered, he will be in a pretty good position to answer the challenge in a way that will show that restraint of trade means restraint of trade and that it is all unreasonable and in no sense reasonable.

However, even big business does not seem to be satisfied, if Mr. Geo. W. Perkins speaks correctly for it. In an address before the Detroit Board of Trade recently, Mr. Perkins declared that "to enforce the law as it stands means to throttle business." Col. Bryan and Mr. Perkins might pool issues and convince President Taft that anti-trust legislation and court decisions do not necessarily complete the legislation for dealing with that momentous question.

CURRENT COMMENT.

When the State Fair comes off and General Carr and Governor Harmon are on parade, we will get a pretty good idea as to what sort of strength Harmon is going to have in North Carolina.—Durham Herald.

Says the Spartanburg Herald: "A Greenville man came to Spartanburg the other day to purchase a horse. When asked why he should prefer a Spartanburg horse to a Greenville horse he is alleged to have confessed that he wanted a 'city broke horse'." Investigation at this end developed the fact that the horse was bought to make a match for a hearse team.—Greenville News.

At Georgetown, Del., the other day an eloquent young attorney was pleading the defense of a criminal case. At what he deemed to be the psychological moment he turned loose the tears. At the same time several friends of the accused also cut loose with tears. "Now, cut that out," ordered the judge; "the sob squad will get out of court immediately. In the past there has been altogether too much crying in court. This case is going to be tried on its merits, and if there is any sobbing to be done, it can be done hereafter." Wasn't that the sane thing; and at the same time, wasn't it a bit tough to deny an eloquent young attorney the privilege of weeping in behalf of his client?—Savannah News.

"General Julian S. Carr," says the Christian Sun, "announces that he will not allow his name to be used as a candidate for the United States Senate. General Carr is just now engaged in a higher and better business, we observe from the daily press. He is traveling this good State soliciting funds with which to build a Methodist church in Washington, D. C. The general himself has given $5,000, and is receiving encouraging responses from the brethren wherever he goes. This, to our thinking, beats running for the Senate out all hollow, and the results will be more abiding also." The fact is that in the latter days of his life, General Carr has been keeping the Recording Angel busy making entries on the good deeds side of the ledger.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Wright Brothers, under observation of the army and navy, are about to return to their North Carolina aviation grounds for further experiments with flying machines. Experiments have already progressed far enough to show that some international arrangements for the limitation of the use of these machines must be made if nations wish to continue to enjoy the excitement and the glory of war. Enough is already known to settle the fact that an aviator in one of his flying machines can sink a battleship by merely dropping a bomb. If a hostile fleet were cruising at the entrance of New York harbor it could easily be destroyed by a few flying machines all combined costing less than an ordinary battleship. But a hostile fleet cruising at the entrance of New York harbor could send out flying machines that could take or destroy any of the forts that guard the city as well as the city itself. Those on land or water on either side of the contest would be at the mercy of the men in the air. So if war is to continue the nations must agree as to how much of it may be conducted from the air. Flying machines, of course, will be used for observation, but if their use for destruction is permitted at all it will be necessary to regulate it and then it may not always be possible to keep nations, driven by necessity, well within the prescribed limits.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Begins Fall Work Today

Now that cool weather has arrived, if only for a short period, arrangements are being made to resume work in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium after a suspension of activities during the Summer months. The Fall work in the boys' department will begin this afternoon. All young members who expect to take part in the gmynastic exercises are requested to report to Physical Director Thees this afternoon at 3 o'clock to be assigned to the proper class.

Best for Biscuits

A prominent teacher in one of the Domestic Science schools in Mississippi writes that she is using Cottolene with excellent results. She says:

"For biscuits Cottolene is all that could be desired. The biscuits are light and flaky, with none of that disagreeable odor often found in foods shortened with lard. Cottolene is also an excellent medium for frying croquettes and doughnuts. It gives them a clean, crisp, brown crust."

Other noted experts, such as Mrs. Rorer and Marion Harland, have given similar testimony to the merits of Cottolene. It not only gives better results than lard but is much more wholesome and economical as well.

Mr. E. L. Ennett Dead.

Friends in the county learned with regret of the death of Mr. E. L. Ennett, which occurred at his home on Middle Sound Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock, after an illness of some time. Mr. Ennett was 63 years old and is survived by his wife and six children, who have the sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement. The funeral was held at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Prospect Church, Middle Sound, and the interment was in the graveyard there.

Funeral of Infant

The funeral of Mary Wescott Rising, the six-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. DEDICATION OF NEW HALL

Handsome Structure Given by Mr. W. H. Sprunt to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church—Exercises Sunday.

The handsome building, known as Memorial Hall, given to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church by Mr. W. H. Sprunt, was formally dedicated Sunday afternoon at the regular session of Sunday School. Exercises of a particularly impressive and interesting nature were rendered and marked an epoch in the history of the church. The attendance was large and all took a keen interest in the exercises.

Special exercises were arranged for the formal opening of the new hall, featured by a short speech of acceptance by Mr. D. L. Latta, superintendent of the Sunday School, and a rising vote of thanks to Mr. W. H. Sprunt as a mark of appreciation of the church members and Sunday School, to the liberal donor.

The new building, which is modern in every appointment and splendidly equipped, was given by Mr. Sprunt as a memorial to the 14 original members of this church and the formal exercises Sunday had been awaited with great interest.

Preceding the exercises the members of the Sunday School assembled in the main body of the church and singing the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers," marched to the new building. Miss Agnes Chasten played the church organ and the piano in the hall was played by Miss Pocahontas Britt as the Sunday School members marched into the new building.

The rising vote of thanks extended to the donor and the speech of acceptance of Mr. Latta were graciously acknowledged by Mr. Sprunt in a few well chosen words. The Sunday School also extended thanks to Dr. Joseph Akerman for his splendid work as chairman of the building committee; Mr. Walter Sprunt for supervising the convenient arrangement of the lighting, and Mr. J. C. Stewart for superintending the construction of the building.

The memorial building is constructed of brick with stone trimmings, having two floors and a basement and designed for the Sunday School and societies. The cost of the modern new hal was about $20,000. Much admiration for the new building has been expressed by members of St. Andrew's and the splendid gift of Mr. Sprunt, which will commemorate the original members of the church, is generally appreciated. Within a short time two memorial windows will be placed, one in memory of Mrs. Alexander Sprunt, mother of the donor, and the other to Mrs. Filyaw, mother of Mrs. H. G. Smallbones. Both of these were among the original members of the church.

AS SEEN IN CHARLOTTE

Col. Wade Harriss Doesn't Like "Lone Mariner" Idea

Editorially, the Charlotte Chronicle of yesterday afternoon says:

"A sea captain has been hanging out at Wilmington for a couple of weeks trying to get that town to part from $1,500. His scheme was that as a "lone mariner," he would cross the ocean in a forty-foot boat, carrying a bale of cotton to Liverpool. He thought that stunt would be worth the aforesaid sum to Wilmington by way of advertisement, and finally a mass meeting was called to pass on his proposition. The meeting was attended by the captain, the janitor and a newspaper reporter. It is doubtful if the meeting had as much as fifteen cents, much less fifteen hundred dollars in its pocket, so it declared itself a partial failure and adjourned. Our only surprise about the matter is that they were able to enroll the janitor as 'among those present.' It would have been just as much of an advertisement for Wilmington for the lone mariner to have sailed from the port for Liverpool without the bale of cotton and then there would have been no risk of the bale having been lost en route. As it is, Wilmington is now safe on at least one bale of cotton and $1,500, which latter it might turn to good account by applying it to printer's ink artistically distributed over a pamphlet telling of the advantages of that excellent city and incomparable seaport."

NEED ATTRACTIVE BOOTH

Chamber of Commerce Puts It Up to People of Wilmington

Efforts are being made by the Chamber of Commerce to create a general interest among Wilmington people with regard to the exhibits to be displayed in the booth made available by a city appropriation in the Southern Commercial Congress Building in Washington.

Feeling that Wilmington's advantages and development along industrial lines necessitates an exhibit equal to any other city in the South, the advertising committee of the Chamber of Commerce, request that photographs of natural scenery or of anything in the way of industrial and agricultural progress, which would aid in advertising Wilmington, be submitted by citizens as a matter of civic pride.

Wilmington has been given one of the most attractive booths in the North Carolina column but delay has been occasioned in sending the exhibits on account of lack of funds and therefore the committee deemed it necessary to call on the public spirited citizens to aid in carrying out this important matter.

This will be one of the important matters to be taken up at the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday of this week and the committee would be pleased to hear from any one that can contribute to the collection of exhibits.

THE ARMY WORM

Making Its Appearance in South Carolina Fields—Local Interest

The Star was shown yesterday a most interesting, although distressing, evidence of the ravages of the army worm in this section of the Carolinas. It came from Mr. R. W. Bidgood, who is representing the large cotton exporting firm of Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, of this city. Mr. Bidgood sent to the house collectively on a single branch from a stalk of cotton, an unusually healthy-looking specimen of the worm, the weed after the ravages of the pest and the egg which hatches the worm. Mr. Bidgood stated to this Wilmington correspondent that the sample was taken from a field of 20 acres which has been entirely ruined. Nothing but bolls remain and Mr. Bidgood is advised that these will not mature after the stalk has been denuded of its foliage. The worms attack only young cotton and the farmers and others at Dillon say that they never saw anything like this pest. Mr. Bidgood writes that these worms are not a local trouble but are making their appearance at a great many points in North and South Carolina.

Within the past several days there have been complaints of the appearance of the same destructive pest in the fine cotton farms of East Wilmington where acres of the young cotton have been denuded of every vestige of foliage and the same is true of several fields of fine young cotton in the vicinity of Winter Park Gardens and on the Masonboro road, leading to the Sound. The pests in this immediate locality have not only ruined the cotton, but growers say it is impossible to get pickers to go into the fields for fear of the worms, although they are entirely harmless.

The army worm, without a doubt, is going to be a problem with which growers will have to deal in making the 1912 crop and it is to be hoped that the Agricultural Departments of the cotton-growing States will lose no time in supplying an effective remedy.

TO HAVE CITY MISSIONARY.

Funds Subscribed by Members of Grace M. E. Church Sunday.

At the morning service at Grace M. E. Church Sunday, funds were subscribed by members of the congregation for the employment of a city missionary, to assist the pastor in the general work of the church. The congregation, realizing the necessity of a lady missionary to make visitations and assist in the work of the church societies, readily pledged $600 for this purpose and she will be employed at the beginning of the new church year. This is an important step in the work of the congregation and the city missionary will be a much needed acquisition to carry out certain features of the work.

Rev. Mr. Wooten preached a special sermon on home mission work at the morning service and told in an interesting way of the great good being accomplished by the religious schools in the western part of the State with particular reference to the Methodist school located at Brevard. A collection was taken for Brevard Institute and at the evening service it was announced that $126.95 had been given by the congregation.

AFTER A LONG ABSENCE.

Mr. "Bob" Hewlett on Visit to Relative in This City.

Mr. "Bob" Hewlett, theatrical promoter, a former Wilmingtonian, arrived in the city yesterday from Memphis, Tenn., accompanied by his wife. It has been 11 years since Mr. Hewlett has been here, having been engaged in theatrical enterprises for several seasons past in Portland, Ore., Victoria, B. C., Seattle and Spokane, Wash., and Denver, Colo. After a few weeks' visit to his mother at No. 303 South Fifth street, Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett will return to Denver, Colo., for a year's engagement, beginning November 6th. "Bob", as he was familiarly known, entered the circus business as tight-rope and slack-wire performer over 25 years ago, having left the employ of The Morning Star, where he was "the devil". He is a brother of Mr. J. H. Hewlett, who is foreman of The Star's job printing department. Mr. Hewlett is looking the picture of health and looks forward to a very pleasant vacation.

FOUR NEW SETTLERS.

Purchase Land at New Berlin Colony and Move Families.

During the past few days four settlers have arrived to take up their permanent residence at New Berlin, one of the colonies developed by the Carolina Trucking Development Company, on the W. C. & A. railroad. They are: Messrs. John Potaki, George Andodi, Millard Becker and W. Poleschner. Mr. Potaki is from Pittsburg, Pa., is an expert machinist. He has moved his family to New Berlin, but he himself will stay in Wilmington most of the time for the present, having secured a position at his trade in this city. Mr. Andodi is from Lansing, Mich., and is also a machinist. Like Mr. Potaki he has secured a position in Wilmington. Messrs. Becker and Poleschner come from Haines Falls, N. Y., and are young men. They are carpenters and have begun work in Wilmington. All four have bought property at New Berlin, and will later give all their time to cultivation of the land.

OBSERVED DAY IN SCHOOLS

Children Instructed as to Meaning of Fire Prevention and Informed of Great Losses From Fire. Inspections.

Yesterday was observed throughout the country as "Fire Prevention Day" and probably nowhere in the State was the observance so marked as in Wilmington. Not only were the suggestions of State Insurance Commissioner Young relative to the inspection of premises and buildings heeded, but in the graded schools of the city the purpose of the interest of the Commissioner was fully explained to the children, this being in accordance with the idea of Mr. John J. Blair, the superintendent, that in movements of this kind, the children are the ones who ought to be interested and can be to good advantage.

In all the graded schools in the city the letter of Commissioner Young relative to the importance of observing the day and emphasizing the great fire waste was read to the children, who seemed to be greatly interested. Commissioner Young pointed out that the fire waste in this country is over $250,000,000 each year, and that in North Carolina fire caused the death of 17 persons during the present year to say nothing of the loss in property. The loss by fire in North Carolina is practically $3,000,000 annually, he pointed out, and more than one-half is not covered by insurance. These and a great many other facts were presented to the children. Besides, in the Union and Hemenway buildings fire drills were practiced.

Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the Wilmington Fire Department, said last night that the day was pretty generally observed in Wilmington so far as he was able to learn. He had talked with a number of people who said that they had made an examination of their premises and had ordered removed all rubbish and debris likely to cause a fire. Chief Schnibben will make his regular quarterly inspection of buildings in a week or ten days and he hopes to see fine results of the observance of Fire Prevention Day.

MOTORS FOR AERO ON WAY.

Aerial Craft Being Constructed Here Will Soon be Ready.

The aeroplane being built by Wilmington interests at the hangar on the Castle Haynes road, will soon be in readiness for trial flights. The company received a message yesterday from the American Motor & Aeroplane Co., of Denver, Colo., stating that the motors, which are the most important and delicate portion of the machinery, had been shipped and they will probably arrive in time to be placed in position this week.

A number of skilled workmen have been engaged for some time in construction of other portions of the machine and the first attempts to fly with the aerial craft are being awaited with great interest. For the present the company makes a request that spectators stay away from the hangar, for fear that they might interfere with the workmen. Exhibition flights are proposed by the company if the machine proves a success. Mr. David Palmgren, the invertor, and president of the American Aeroplane Company, is personally superintending the work.

ASSAULT ON MULATTO GIRL.

Negroes Must Answer for Cowardly Attack—Two Arrested.

Charged with assault and battery upon Gertrude Simpson, a bright mulatto, Sunday night about 10 o'clock as she was on her way from her home to her sister's home, Dinia Underwood and Power Taylor, both colored, were arrested yesterday and will be tried in Justice Bornemann's court today. Justice Bornemann said yesterday that there would be other arrests in the case.

According to the story told Justice Bornemann by the girl, she was on her way to her sister's home, only a short distance from her home, Sunday night when she passed a crowd of negro boys standing on the street corner. Without any cause whatever one of the number ran up and said something to her and then knocked her down. Others joined at this juncture and the girl's clothes were badly torn and she was bruised in several places, it is claimed.

COLORED WORKMAN KILLED.

Member of Bridge Construction Force Crushed Under Derrick.

A colored workman, whose name was not learned last night, was crushed to death under a derrick while working with a railroad construction force at the Navassa bridge over the Northeast river yesterday afternoon.

The breaking of a pin in the top of the pile driver was responsible for the accident. The man was employed with a force engaged in widening the draw at the bridge and was caught under the derrick when it fell. The accident occurred near the Navassa Fertilizer Works and the body was immediately brought to the city and will be shipped today to his former home in Fayetteville, where it will be taken charge of by relatives and interred.

Funeral of Mrs. Craig.

The funeral of Mrs. Patience M. Craig, mention of whose death was made in Sunday's paper, was held from the family residence, No. 821 South Fifth street, at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning, conducted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist Church. There were present a large number of relatives and friends. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery and the pall-bearers were Messrs. M. Marshburn, J. T. Hawkins, W. J. Mallard, C. D. Craig, C. W. Craig and J. J. Craig.

MR. GEORGE ROSE DEAD.

Venerable New Hanover Citizen Passes Away During the Night.

Friends of Mrs. W. A. Lineker will sympathize with her in the death of her father, Mr. George Rose, a venerable citizen of the county for the past ten years or longer, his death having occurred suddenly during Sunday night at the home of the family, on the Castle Haynes road, about four miles from the city. Mr. Rose had reached the advanced age of 93 years and had been in failing health for some months. However, he appeared no worse than usual when he retired Sunday night and the family was totally unprepared for the shock which came with the discovery yesterday morning that during the night he had passed away. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, who was summoned during the day, pronounced death due more to the infirmities of his age than from any specific cause.

Mr. Rose was borning in Wareshire, England, and came to this country in 1870, locating first in New York and later in Lincoln, Neb., coming to live with his daughter here some ten or twelve years ago. He was a man of remarkable activity for one of his years and challenged the esteem and admiration of the community in which he lived. By profession he was a contractor, surveyor and general builder, but in later life he had not been actively engaged in his profession. He helped to build the Clearing House in Northern London before coming to this country and was also employed on the Clarkfarm junction in England, besides being at one time attached to the Royal Engineer Corps in Dublin, Ireland. Coming to America he assisted with the building of the immense roundhouse at Lincoln, Neb., the home of William J. Bryan, and also was one of the builders of the Lenox library in New York.

Mr. Rose is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lineker, of this county, and Mrs. Emily Shoulders, of New Jersey, and one son, Mr. George Rose, of New York, all of whom are expected here for the funeral.

The funeral of Mr. Rose will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Acorn Branch church and the interment will be in the cemetery there. The remains will leave the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lineker at 3 o'clock.

WILMINGTON CONVOCATION.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Yesterday Was Dull Monday—Wayward Boy Before Court.

Yesterday in the Recorder's court was exceedingly dull for Monday, there being only a few cases, including the several drunks. Recorder Furlong presided. William Henry Daniels, the 12-year-old son of Mrs. Sophie Daniels, was charged with a nuisance. He was sent by the Recorder to the Stonewall Jackson Training School at Concord for a period of five years. The boy was willing and anxious to go to the institution, and his mother was also willing that he should go.

Mattie Pridgen, colored, was assessed $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Clarence Barnes, colored, a stranger in these parts, was called to answer a charge of vagrancy. He said that he left a show a few days ago and came here in search of work, but had found nothing to do. Judgment was suspended upon condition that he leave the city before 7:30 last night. Jim Spencer and John Scott, both colored, each paid $10 and costs for assault on females.

MR. PAUL H. LANGDON DEAD

Native of Wilmington Passes Away in Augusta, Ga.

Friends in this city have learned with much regret of the death of Mr. Paul H. Langdon, which occurred at his home in Augusta, Ga. Mr. Langdon was an uncle of Mrs. Thos. D. Meares, of this city. He was born and reared in Wilmington, but when a young man he moved to California, where he lived until the beginning of the Civil War, when he returned to this section and served throughout the struggle as a member of the Confederate army. At the close of the war he settled in Augusta, where he lived until his death. He was 85 years old and is survived by his wife, a son and two daughters.

FALL ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY, THE THIRTEENTH

The Epworth League of Fifth Street Methodist church will give its Fall entertainment in the Boys' Brigade Armory Friday, the 13th, beginning at 8:30 P. M. Is Friday, the 13th, lucky or unlucky? is a question that will doubtless be answered in the affirmative by the several hundred who will be present to enjoy the entertainment of the Epworth League. A musical and literary programme worth while has been arranged. There will be vocal and instrumental selections by some of Wilmington's best talent and also several numbers by the orchestra. Besides there will be a half hour lecture by J. Leon Williams, Esq., of Newbern, a well-known reader and humorist, whose remarks promise to be interesting, instructive and entertaining. Following the entertainment refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake, hot chocolate, will be sold. The public in general is cordially invited to attend. The detail programme will be announced later in the week.

A number of ministers were present and there was an informal discussion of plans for the year. Owing to the absence of several ministers it was decided to postpone until next Monday the election of officers.

INDICTED CONVICT GUARD

Assault With Deadly Weapon Charged for Shooting Negro

Justice Bornemann yesterday issued a warrant for the convict camp guard, Wagstaff, who, while looking for an escaped convict a few weeks ago, shot and painfully wounded James Hill, colored, charging him with assault with deadly weapon. The affidavit was made by Lizzie Hill, mother of the negro who was shot, and she was accompanied to the magistrate's office by Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., whom she has engaged to prosecute the case, it is said. Soon after the warrant was issued Mr. W. H. Shearin, superintendent of the county roads, went to Justice Bornemann's office and told the magistrate that Mr. Wagstaff is seriously ill now, but that as soon as he recovers sufficiently to be out he would bring him to the city to answer the charge against him. This was pefectly satisfactory to the magistrate.

Near-Robbery Yesterday.

Early yesterday morning a near-robbery occurred at the clothing store of Mr. Geo. W. Penny, on South Front street. Soon after opening the store Mr. C. F. Williams, a clerk, went to the rear and found things greatly disarranged. He called to Mr. Mincie, another clerk, and when they looked out in the alley they saw a negro making off with a package. Mr. Mincie gave chase for about a block, when the negro threw down the package, which was found to contain about $50 worth of clothing taken from the store. Not being able to overtake the negro Mr. Mincie returned to the store with the clothing. Report of the matter was made to the police and a description of the negro was given the officers.

Try This Famous Pinex "Pint of Cough Syrup"

A Family Supply for 50c, Saving $2. The Surest, Quickest Remedy You Ever Used or Money Refunded.

A cough remedy that saves you $2, and is guaranteed to give quicker, better results than anything else, is surely worth trying. And one trial will show you why Pinex is used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy.

You will be pleasantly surprised by the way it takes right hold of a cough, giving almost instant relief. It will usually stop the most obstinate, deep-seated cough in 24 hours, and is unequalled for prompt results in whooping cough.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, when mixed with home-made sugar syrup, makes a full pint of the best cough remedy ever used. Easily prepared in five minutes—directions in package.

The taste is pleasant—children take it willingly. Stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both excellent features. Splendid for croup, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis and other throat troubles, and a highly successful remedy for incipient lung troubles.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of Norway White Pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Simply mix with sugar syrup or strained honey, in a pint bottle, and it is ready for use.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will gladly get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

"The Clansman", Thomas Dixon's celebrated play, was presented at the Academy of Music yesterday, matinee and night. The crowd was very small in the afternoon, but there was a fairly large audience at night. The applause was generous and the work of the various persons in the cast is about the same as that of the companies presenting the play on its former tours of the South.

Two Creatore Concerts Today.

The press and public are unanimous in acknowledging that there is no better concert band in America than the Creatore organization, and the world has not produced another leader of Creatore's ability. He is a musical artist of the very highest order, with more brilliant ideas of interpretation and more startling results in effect than the American public has ever before had an opportunity to contemplate. The pre-eminent and distinguishing feature of a Creatore concert is its enjoyable quality. This splendid organization will appear at the Academy today, matinee and night. Seats went on sale yesterday at Plummer's. The highest price for either concert, save box seats, is $1, but there will be plenty of 75 cents seats for downstairs for the matinee this afternoon.

The programme of the matinee was given Sunday, and the following programme for tonight will prove of interest:

PART I.

March "Roma" .....Musso
Overture, "Semiramide," .....Rossini
Cornetto Solo, Song "Dear"..Creatore
Sextette, from "Lucia" .....Donizetti
Solos by Signori De Mitry, Bernardi, Rossi, Molinara, De Luca and Caso.
Intermission.

PART II.

"Funeral March" .....Chopin
Intermezzo, "Cavalleria Rusticana,"... .....Mascagni
Saxophone Quartette, "Angel's Serenade" ..... Braga
Solos by Signori Iasilli, Andrisani, Cipriani and Marcelli.
Overture, "1812." .....Tschaikowsky

An Event of the Season.

In tomorrow night's offering at the Academy, "The Gamblers," Wilmington theatre-goers will have the opportunity of witnessing one of the greatest plays ever written and beholding a magnificent New York production. Seats for this superb attraction will go on sale at Plummer's this morning, and there should be a large demand for seats.

"The Gamblers" play only a few dates in North Carolina. Of the attraction the Durham Herald had just said:

"The laconic criticism of 'The Gamblers' last night was that it is 'a $1.50 play.'

"And that is tantamount to saying that it met every reasonable demand. Not only is it a really high-class play, but it is the best one that has been seen here the past two years, if indeed it has been equalled at all since the original cast gave Mr. Klein's other great play, 'The Lion and the Mouse.'

"In that great cast with Miss Shotwell and Mr. Oliver Doud Byron taking the role of mouse and lion, there were almost nation-beaters. Yet, one fails to find one spot to which he can point as an infirmity. The five men, engaged in the gamble to settle the victim, are five finished actors, the best men cast, far the best, ever playing the Academy."

"The Girl in the Taxi."

Opportunities to indulge in hearty laughter are none too frequent in this life of strain and stress and the forthcoming visit of "The Girl in the Taxi" to the Academy Thursday night should not be missed. Laughter is the keynote of this successful entertainment which comes to this city with quantities of broken records for box office receipts and large attendance to its credit. "The Girl in the Taxi" sped along without interruption for long runs in New York, Chicago and Boston, and promises to be the brightest spot in this season's offerings.

Seats will go on sale tomorrow.

"Graustark."

Geo. D. Baker's adaptation of Grace Hayward's dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's novel, "Graustark" is to be the attraction at the Academy Saturday, matinee and night.

The theme of "Graustark" is as well known as any of the novels of recent years, and the play follows closely Mr. McCutcheon's book, for stage purposes. The dramatization is along romantic lines, and there are numerous climaxes and situations, made more effective by presentation on the stage. The play is well constructed and acted with a dash and spirit looked for in all first-class productions.

The Grand.

The Grand will offer its usual big bill this afternoon and evening, this including three splendid photoplays and a character song, "That Certain Party Rag," an illustrated song that is bound to please. The feature photoplay will be an Essanay production of "Master Cupid, Detective," an ingenious play splendidly acted and portrayed in motion pictures. The usual small prices will obtain and the public is cordially invited.

At the Bijou.

The popular Bijou gloriously inaugurated another week yesterday and it has well prepared to keep the joy-riding pace up to a big climax next Saturday night. The Bijou has prepared to make the present week one of the most delightful and therefore biggest for attendance in its history. Yesterday it made a fine start and today will be a gladsome repetition, though there will be more frills about today's offering. One of the most novel of all photo-plays will be presented today and one that will teach a great lesson in "Carr's Regeneration." It deals with the "grouch." It shows how he looks through the glass darkly and therefore misses lots of joys and makes other folks feel dismal. Then he sees the light, as other of the "grouch" class will some day, and he is happy. Another strong film feature for today is "The Sheriff's Decision." It is a rugged, stirring story of a struggle between love and duty, and the stage setting, as it were, is superb. The other films are good ones also, and the music will be entirely new and of the merriest brand.

The New Lyric.

The programme this week is the best that has yet been presented to the patrons of this little theatre, but the management has decided that they will really do better business if the prices remain at the small figures charged last week, so the prices are the same. The LaCelles, who are pleasantly remembered from former visits to Wilmington, are scoring a big beat with their singing and talking skit, and Mr. LaCelle is making a hit at the song composition stunt of which he makes a specialty, composing rhymes from any suggested word, instantly. He offers $100 for any word that he cannot immediately rattle off a poem about. Junius and Farleigh, a comedy sketch team, are also making in a big hit and the pictures are much better than previously, as nothing but the highest class licenses films are now presented.

TO COMMAND SEMINOLE

Capt. J. G. Berry Expected During the Week — From Galveston

Capt. J. G. Berry, United States Revenue Cutter Service, who was formerly attached to the Windom, at Galveston, Texas, but who has been on waiting orders for some time, is expected in Wilmington during the week to take command of the Revenue Cutter Seminole. Capt. Berry is one of the best men in the service and comes to one of the most important posts in the service. For the past several months First Lieutenant Covell has been in command, and has directed the work from this station with particular ability, especially during the recent stress of weather along the South Atlantic coast. Friends will be delighted to know that he remains aboard the cutter as executive officer.

SCHOLARSHIP AT HARVARD

Wilmington Boy Who Has Achieved Distinction at University

The many friends of Mr. William H. Duls were glad to hear recently that he had won a scolarship at Harvard University. Mr. Duls having graduated last year from the Law Department, is back at Harvard taking post-graduate work, expecting also to obtain the degree of "Doctor of Laws." A couple of days ago he was informed by the faculty that he had won the "Research Scholarship." This scholarship is offered for research work in problems of law and in this work the many Wilmington friends of Mr. Duls wish him unbounded success.

COTTON WEAK AND UNSETTLED

Another Set of New Low Records—Net Decline of 18 to 22 Points—Heavy Selling by Southern Interests.

New York, October 9.—The cotton market was weak and unsettled again today and another set of new low records was established with October and January contracts selling below the 9¼ cent level. The close was barely steady at a net decline of 18@22 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 1@6 points, in response to over-Sunday selling orders from the South and the indifferent showing of Liverpool, but there seemed a disposition among speculative shorts to cover, and shortly after the call prices sold up to a net advance of about five pounts on the active positions. The weather map showed a light frost at Oklahoma City, while rains were reported on open cotton in Georgia. There was nothing however, to suggest temperatures anywhere in the belt. The western belt forecast was for warmer weather tomorrow.

When it was seen that the early demand from shorts, although heavy, was being readily supplied by the continued Southern hedge-selling, the market turned easier. Reports of a slack trade demand, of easier Eastern belt spot markets and rumors of cuts in the price of cotton goods added to the aggressiveness of the selling later. Early buyers seemed to be liquidating their cotton and putting out fresh lines, and while covering was active enough to cause slight rallies from time to time during the afternoon, the general tendency of the market was downward, with October cotton selling at 9.41; December, 9.58, and January at 9.40, during the late trading. Closing prices were a couple of points up from the lowest on December, but at the low records on the general list. Some of the early wires from the South reported that the country was holding cotton on a more important scale, but the continued selling here by houses with Southern connections was supposed to be in a way of hedging spot offerings in excess of immediate demand.

Receipts today, 78,595 bales, against 66,271 last week and 72,633 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 4,422 bales against 7,180 last year, and at Houston 22,012, against 34,534 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 20 points lower; middling uplands, 9.75; do. gulf, 1,000; sales, 1,700 bales.

Futures closed barely steady.

DAY'S TREND OF STOCK MARKET

Heaviness of Coalers and Strength of Southern Roads Gave It Only Movements of Importance — Supreme Court.

New York, October 9.—Heaviness of the coalers and strength of the Southern roads gave today's stock market its only movements of importance. Following a period of moderate activity in the first hour, the market became dull. Trading was without initiative or purpose. The unwillingness of operators on either side to take an aggressive position indicated that the market had been allowed to fall into a rut, pending developments which will give a more decided cast to speculative sentiment. The market opened today on a somewhat higher level, but the improvement was of short duration. The coalers were forced down to well below Saturday's close and the remainder of the list sagged with them. Before noon the market had recovered its losses, with the exception of the coal stocks, and during the remainder of the session changes were only nominal, except in a few isolated cases.

Reading was heaviest of the coalers, at one time showing a loss of more than two points. The selling of those stocks was associated with the convening today of the Supreme Court, which is soon to pass upon the government's case against Reading in the Anthracite suit. This is the first case of this precise nature to come before the Supreme Court since its promulgation of the rule of reason interpretation of the Sherman law.

Nothing more definite than a report of the coming extra dividend for Louisville and Nashville was at hand to explain the buoyancy of Southern rallers. Both Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville advanced more than four points, and other Southern roads scored smaller gains. Further reductions in the price of various steel products were reported. United States Steel was sold on those changes, and on a report, subsequently denied officially, that the Department of Justice was to bring a suit for dissolution of the corporation at once. The stock yielded for a time, but later recovered fully. Bonds were irregular. Leading issues showed early heaviness, but the general tone improved later. Total sales, par value, $2,570,000. United States 3s advanced ¼ on call. Total sales of stocks were 466,400 shares.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, October 9.—The cotton goods markets are still undergoing price revisions on cloths such as denims, tickings and other heavy domestics that were not priced for Spring. Business continues to go along steadily in moderate quantities. Dress goods are showing an improvement with cutters and jobbers. Yarns are quiet, with an easing tendency on coarse numbers.

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

HELPFUL WORDS

From a Wilmington Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful?

Does it ache especially after exertion?

Is there a soreness in the kidney region?

These symptoms indicate weak kidneys;

There is danger in delay.

Weak kidneys fast get weaker.

Give your trouble prompt attention.

Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly,

They strengthen weak kidneys.

Read this Wilmington testimony.

Miss Mattie Hodges, 609 S. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills just as strongly today as I did two years ago, when I publicly told of my experience with them. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured from Bellamy's Drug Store and they gave me more relief from kidney trouble than any other medicine I had ever taken. I have since been well and my kidneys and back have not troubled me."

NO UNRIPE ORANGES.

Federal Government Will Take Hand in Florida Shipments.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The Department of Agriculture has prepared for confiscation of any shipments of unripe oranges or other unripe fruit from Florida. Secretary Wilson, who has been in communication with the Florida agricultural authorities, announced today that any attempts to ship artificially ripened fruit out of Florida or to "process" unripe fruit on its journey to the North would be the signal for government activity.

A shortage in citrus fruits has developed throughout the North with accompanying high prices. Much of this shortage is due, it is claimed, to the enforcement of the Florida State law prohibiting the shipment of unripe fruit, and the Federal pure food decision, which prohibits the transportation of artificially ripened or colored fruit.

The agricultural department is prepared to act under the pure food law, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, which has jurisdiction over the matter, stated today that if advised of any such shipment, inspectors would examine the fruit at destination and take any necessary action.

"Fruit may be picked green and ripened by natural processes without running counter to the pure food regulation," said Dr. Wiley. "Green fruit ripened by the 'sweating process' with the aid of chemicals or by transportation in steam heated cars, cannot be transported without violation of the pure food regulations."

The order against the artificial ripening of fruit was issued a year ago. It is claimed that it has had the effect of holding back early citrus fruits from the North. Florida State authorities and fruit growers and shippers who, conforming to its provisions, have asked the Agricultural Department to see that it is rigidly enforced.

CORNELIUS BLISS DEAD.

Well Known New Yorker Passes After Year's Illness.

New York, Oct. 9.—Cornelius Newton Bliss, aged 78 years, for years one of the prominent figures in National Republican politics and otherwise well known as a merchant and a member of the dry goods firm of Bliss, Fabyan & Co., died at his home here tonight of heart disease.

The end was not wholly unexpected, as Mr. Bliss had been ill for a year. While death is attributed to heart failure, there had been a general breaking down which comes of old age. Mr. Bliss was born in Fall River, Mass., in 1833. Funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow.

Mr. Bliss was treasurer of the Republican National Committee, 1892 to 1908, and previous to that he had been chairman of the New York State Republican Committee. With the late Senator Platt, Senator Depew and ex-Governor Levi P. Morton he had for years represented New York State at Republican National conventions. He twice refused to become a candidate for governor of New York, but following the National campaign of 1896, in which William McKinley was elected President, he accepted the position of Secretary of the Interior in the McKinley cabinet. He held this post for two years and then resigned because of stress of private business. Mr. Bliss had amassed a great fortune. He was always active in movements for municipal reforms. For some years he was president of the American Protective League.

ANTI-TYPHOID CAMPAIGN

Government Urges Use of Virus—A General Prevalence

Washington, Oct. 7.—The prevalence of typhoid fever in practically every section of the United States has inspired the public health and marine hospital service to press publicly its belief in the artificial immunity, with certain limitations, afforded by anti-typhoid vaccination, already compulsory in the American army for soldiers under 45 years of age.

In a report just issued the public health service reproduces the summary of the findings of a commission of the Academy of Medicine of Paris which investigated the subject.

"Anti-typhoid vaccination," the French commission declares, "does not accomplish the complete disappearance of this infectious disease in the communities where it is practiced, but it diminishes very notably its frequence. Moreover, such of the vaccinated who contract typhoid fever notwithstanding have much milder attacks than non-vaccinated subjects. The percentage of deaths supervening among the former is one-half that of the non-vaccinated typhoid patients."

In the judgment of the commission the vaccination shoulr be practiced only upon healthy subjects, free from all organic or other defects and from local or general affections, no matter what their nature, especially tuberculosis.

CONGRESS OF ABORIGINES

American Indians to Consider Measures for Improvement

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 9.—The first Congress of American Indians ever held in this country, which convenes here on October 12th, will devise ways for opening fields of opportunity for the red men.

Some of the means to be suggested to the congress will be the training of the Indians on the Western reservations in scientific agriculture and the establishment of bureaus for the assistance of Indians in obtaining higher education and bureaus for the finding of employment for red men.

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—Another chapter in the sensational Crawford poisoning story was written today when Annie Crawford, the mysterious spinster, member of a family that has been almost wiped out by sudden attacks of supposed morphine poisoning, was indicted by the Orleans Parish grand jury on the charge that she murdered her sister Elsie Crawford.

WATERWAY DEVELOPMENT.

Engineers Busy With Estimates for Next Session of Congress.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, Oct. 9.—The Army Engineers charged with the expenditure of money for waterways projects, are rapidly sending in their estimates for appropriations needed to carry on the work now under way throughout the United States looking to the increased use of the water courses, insofar as their navigability is concerned.

These estimates will be necessarily pruned in order that the river and harbor appropriation bill, which will undoubtedly be enacted at the coming session of Congress, may be kept within the $30,000,000 mark, as word has gone forth to the chairmen of committees having appropriation bills in charge to cut appropriations to the bone.

In anticipation of a river and harbor bill at the coming session of Congress, a number of very important waterway conventions, interested in distinctive projects will be held during the month of October, commencing with the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway Association, which will meet in Chicago, October 12-14. The Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, which contemplates the building of an inland passage from Maine to Florida, meets in the city of Richmond, Va., on the 18th, 19th and 20th of October, and which, according to its president, Hon. J. Hampton Moore, member of Congress from Pennsylvania, will bring together a larger number of delegates than have attended any of the former sessions of this organization. Following closely on the heels of the Richmond convention comes the Upper Mississippi River Improvement Association, which holds its 13th convention at Alton, Ill., October 25th and 26th.

Hon. Thos. Wilkinson, president of the Upper Mississippi Association recently said that the economic value of adequate and dependable waterways was unquestioned. "The great commercial cities of the world in all ages have been located upon or had free access to the water routes of commerce," said Mr. Wilkinson. "The cities of this country, as the census will show, that are situated upon improved waterways have far outgrown those cities not on waterways or those cities on unimproved waterways.

"Every important railroad has its terminals, for obvious reasons, on navigable waterways or deep harbors. The large and commercially important cities have grown and prospered because of cheap transportation secured by water competition. Water transportation is much cheaper than rail transportation and rail transportation is less where it comes in competition with water transportation. Yet notwithstanding the difference in his favor the shipper has not seemed to consider water transportation on the river seriously because of lack of thought and proper attention. Nevertheless, through the educational influence of waterway associations and especially the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, ably presided over by that eminent student of waterways, Hon. Joseph E. Ransdell, of Louisiana, an awakening is at hand all over the country; activity in waterway projects is remarked and a waterway era is upon us such as was begun by Germany a generation ago."

November will also be marked by a number of waterway conventions, chief of which in importance probably will be the Mississippi-to-Atlantic Inland Waterway Association, which meets at Montgomery, Ala., on the 20th, 21st and 22nd of next month and very fittingly will pave the way for the biggest waterway convention of them all, the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which meets in Washington December 6, 7 and 8.

BLUE AND GRAY IN ATLANTA.

Two Thousand Troops From North and South Celebrating Peace.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 9.—To dedicate a monument commemorating the famous mission of peace, undertaken by the old Gate City Guards of Atlanta in 1879, more than 2,000 soldiers, representing many of the crack military organizations of the North and South, have arrived here. The day was given over to the reception of the visitors and tonight a reception was held at the auditorium armory. The chief event of the peace celebration will be the dedication of the monument in Piedmont park tomorrow following an imposing parade.

A notable incident occurred this afternoon when the officers of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of Boston, the oldest military organization in America, decorated graves of the Confederate dead in Oakland cemetery. The wreath was brought from Boston. Faneuil Hall, the home of the Ancient and Honorables, is worked in white and red, white above on a background of blue, the union of North and South is symbolized by two hands clasped over the word "Peace." Beneath is the inscription, "Cradle of Liberty, A. and H. A., of Massachusetts."

Garbed in the buff and blue of the revolutionary period, and carrying flint lock muskets, the Putnam Phalanx, of Hartford, Conn., arrived this morning, together with the Governor's Footguard, accompanying Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, of Connecticut, and staff, and Mayor E. L. Smith, of Hartford. Governor Baldwin will act as the representative of the East in the unveiling ceremony tomorrow. The South will be represented by General Clifford L. Anderson, acting for Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, who is prevented from participating by a recent death in his family.

McNAMARAS' BIOGRAPHY.

The "Uneventful" Lives of Two Brothers Soon to be Tried.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 9.—Sitting in a corridor just outside his cell in the county jail, John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron workers, briefly sketched what he termed the uneventful lives of himself and his brother, James B. McNamara.

"I was born in Cincinnati December 23, 1876," he said, "and I am the oldest of six children living, although there were ten children originally. I attended the common schools in Cincinnati until I was twelve years old and then took a three year course in a business college.

"Nothing of any importance happened to me until the panic began in 1892, when I turned my hand to anything and everything to keep the pot boiling, as they say.

"I did my first bridgework at Cincinnati in 1898, joining the union the next year. Between 1898 and 1904, I visited various sections of the Middle West, following my trade and working on steel bridges, viaducts and similar structures.

"I have held all of the offices in local unions, particularly in those of Cleveland, and have attended all the conventions of the international association since 1902. I was elected second vice president at the convention at Kansas City in 1903 and was chosen secretary-treasurer at Toronto in 1904. I have held that office ever since.

"The last building I worked on was the Rockefeller structure in Cleveland. I left that job to go to Toronto, and it was held open for me if I wanted to go back, but I didn't, as I had been made secretary-treasurer and had my time fully taken up with the duties of that office.

"The offices of the international association were in New York when I was first elected. Later, for sentimental reasons, I was instrumental in having them moved to Cleveland. Two years after the offices were removed there, another change was made to Indianapolis, for the reason that so many labor organizations had their international headquarters there.

"I never planned my life far ahead. The work of an ironworker probably precludes such planning, for such a man does not know when he leaves home in the morning that he will return at night. It probably tends towards fatalism.

"I wanted to learn of the organization in which I held office, particularly the legal end of it, and so I attended the Indianapolis College of Law and was admitted to practice in 1909.

"There is little else about my life except my arrest. I am an inveterate reader, and always have been, of books treating with economics and industrial matters."

James B. McNamara, who sat quietly by while his brother talked, also was born in Cincinnati. His birthday was June 2, 1882. He attended the common schools and then learned the printer's trade, which he has followed almost continuously ever since, working in job offices in Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati and other cities.

"Unlike me" said John J. McNamara, "my brother has never been especially active in trades union affairs."

TRAGEDIES OF THE MOUNTAINS.

Distiller Wanted for Murdering Patrons and Burning Bodies.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—The offering of a reward of $200 by Governor Kitchin for Will McIntyre, Rutherford county, brings to light one of the most remarkable crimes in the history of the State, if the theory of the officials asking the reward is correct. On September 7th, 1906, J. H. Melton mysteriously disappeared in Rutherford. Then on November 4th, of the same year, J. D. Atchley disappeared and in 1908, L. B. Hines went the same way, with no trace of their fate, all three from the same neighborhood, and each of them having considerable sums of money on their persons when last seen. Will McIntyre is a blockader and had a distillery in that section of the county and the three men, it seems now, were at the McIntyre distillery just before disappearance, to procure whiskey. The contention of the county authorities now is that McIntyre and his associates murdered these men to get their money and burned their bodies in the furnace of the blockade distillery. The father of Melton claims to have found bones in the furnace that were human bones. McIntyre has been convicted of blockading, but is now in hiding in this or some other State. Solicitor A. Hall Johnson joins with Attorney M. L. Edwards, of Rutherfordton, and numerous citizens in asking for the reward. McIntyre is described as 25 years old, sallow, dark hair and eyes, crippled in one leg, so he walks ordinarily with one hand on his knee.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—Indicted for three murders committed in 1906 and 1908, there was a reward of $200 offered today by the governor for the capture of William McIntyre, of Rutherford county.

McIntire has only lately been released from a term of imprisonmtnt for blockading and the indictment for the murders followed. Three men known to have money about their persons were seen at McIntyre's blockade distillery and each mysteriously disappeared. John Melton, in September, 1906; J. D. Atchley, in November, 1906, and L. B. Hines in 1908.

Witnesses before the grand jury testified to seeing parts of human flesh and bones in the furnace at the still, with many indications that human beings had been burned, the father of Melton being one of the witnesses.

The written opinion of county authorities asking that a reward be offered for McIntyre's capture is that he and his associates murdered the three men, robbed them and then threw their bodies into the furnace.

ENGLISH DREADNAUGHTS

King George V., Successfully Launched at Portsmouth

Portsmouth, Eng., Oct. 9.—Great Britain's largest and best armored battleship, King George V., was successfully launched today. The warship was christened by his Majesty's aunt, Princess Christina of Schleswig-Holstein.

The King George V., had been on the docks two weeks less than the average dreadnaught, having been laid down on January 16th, last.

The vessel has a displacement of 23,000 tons and her principal dimensions are: Length 555 feet; beam 89; draft 27 1-2.

The armament consists of ten 13.5 inch guns and twenty-four 4-inch guns. Engines of 31,000 horsepower are expected to furnish a speed of 21 knots an hour.

GRAY HAIR MEANS AGE

Is Your Hair Streaked With Gray? Simple Remedy Restores Color.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
